(From Page 2)

Auburn University has been desegregated without incident.

5. HOSPITAL DESEGREGATION: In accordance with the decision of the Court of Appeals in the Simkins case, regulations have been promulgated requiring as a condition for Federal financial assistance, the policy of non-discrimination in the admission of patients and in professional staffing.

6. REGISTRATION AND VOTING: The administration has encouraged the broadest possible registration and voting through active promotion of the anti-poll tax amendment through Presidential letters to governors and mayors directing their attention to the recommendations of the Commission on Registration and Voting Participation. The Department of Justice has continued to bring voting cases before the federal judiciary in order to guarantee the right to register and vote in every section of the country. Eight more voting suits were filed in the states of Alabama and Mississippi.

7. GENERAL ATTITUDE: At every opportunity Presidential statements have made crystal clear the President's commitment to equal treatment and opportunity for all Americans without regard to race, color, creed or national origin, including his first address to the joint session of Congress five days after assuming office
