

GOOD JOBS OFFERED IN POST OFFICE HERE

HOW WOULD YOU like to work for Uncle Sam?

Letter carrier and postal clerk, garageman, mail handler, automotive mechanic, janitor and custodial laborer positions are available now in the Las Vegas Post Office. Applications for these postal positions will be accepted until further notice, according to Postmaster Robert H. Lias.

"If we are to maintain high standards of mail service and stay abreast of our community's growth, your post office must continue to recruit qualified employees", Postmaster Lias said in explaining the need for postal job applicants.

Salaries for clerk and carrier positions begin at $2.33 per hour, with automatic increases to $3.20 per hour; garageman and mail handlers positions begin at $2.16 per hour, with automatic increases to $2.95 per hour; automotive mechanic positions begin at $2.52 per hour, with automatic increases to $3.45 per hour; janitor positions begin at $1.83 per hour, with automatic increases to $2.54 per hour; custodial laborer positions begin at $1.99 per hour, with automatic increases to $2.73 per hour. Ten percent additional is paid for work performed between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.

The Postmaster pointed out that postal careers offer high job security, opportunities for advancement through promotional examinations, regular salary increases, low cost life insurance and health plans, and liberal retirement benefits. Postal workers enjoy 2-1/2 to 5 weeks annual vacation, depending on length of service, and are allowed 13 days sick leave with full pay each year, he added.

Applicants must be United States citizens, at least 18 years of age, or 16 years of age if they are high school graduates, and must qualify on a Civil Service examination before they may be appointed. Minimum age for automotive mechanic and garageman positions is 18. Janitor and custodial laborer positions are reserved by law for veterans.

Applications will be accepted from men and women, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, creed, color, sex, or national origin.

Those who qualify on the written examination for clerk and carrier may indicate their interest in employment in Las Vegas, Blue Diamond, Boulder City, East Las Vegas, Henderson, Indian Springs, Logandale, Mesquite, North Las Vegas, Overton, Pittman, and Searchlight, and may be considered for employment in any or all of these post offices. By filing an additional application form at the time of the examination, those persons who qualify and reside in Las Vegas, East Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, Blue Diamond, and Indian Springs may also be considered for employment in the post office at Mercury, Nevada, where the examination is open for positions of clerk.

The Postmaster emphasized that the Postal Service is a live and lively business, providing interesting work and unlimited opportunity to those who "have what it takes". Interested persons may obtain information and application forms at the Las Vegas Post Office, 301 Stewart St., telephone 382-1772.
