

SUPERVISOR JOBS OPEN AT CENTER

POSITIONS are now available for men who can qualify as group supervisors at the Nevada Youth Training Center in Elko, the State Personnel Department has announced.

Salary range for all vacant positions is $401 to $487 per month. Duties include guidance and supervisory work in the care and training of delinquent boys, plus work in related fields.

Applicants will be selected on the basis of a civil service examination. Applications may be obtained through the Personnel Department in Carson City or at the offices of the Nevada Employment Service in Las Vegas, Reno, Elko, Ely, Fallon, Winnemucca, Lovelock and Stateline.

Minimum qualifications include graduation from high school or equivalent education and two years experience in the supervision of youths in a private or public institution; or, the teaching, leadership or personal guidance of youths in an organized program; or, the supervision of a group of employees; or graduation from an accredited college or university with major in sociology, psychology, education, social work or related fields; or, any equivalent combination of education and experience.
