Negro rock 'n' roll singer Chubby Checker and his former Miss World bride of ten days, Catherina Lodders of Holland, were "honeymooning" in Columbus, Ohio, today, where the "Twist King" is appearing at a night club.

The newlyweds, both 22, went to Columbus last Monday following their "fantastic" marriage ceremony in Pennsauken, N. J., and a week-long stay in Washington, D. C., where Chubby fulfilled another night club engagement.

Checker, whose real name is Ernest Evans, and the former salesgirl and model who became Miss World in 1962, were united at the Temple Lutheran Church in Pennsauken. The bride wore a gown of white silk brocade with a long train. Chubby wore a grey cutaway suit.

More than 1,000 Pennsaukens, most of them screaming teenagers, cheered the couple as they left the church in Chubby's maroon Rolls Royce followed by the wedding party in four limousines.

The bride was given away by her father, an airline interior decorator. Checker's brother Tracy, 17, was best man. The ushers included Kees Lodders, Jr., 17, the bride's brother, and Timmy Brown, Philadelphia Eagles football player, a friend of the groom.

The couple met in the Philippines in 1963
