

VOICE HOSTS LOCAL TEACHERS

PARTY ENDS SCHOOL YEAR

IT WAS the Las Vegas VOICE's pleasure to entertain our West Las Vegas school teachers and their spouses or special friends last week at a Champagne Party celebrating the end of the school year. The gala affair was held at Ruben's Supper Club, with George Jenkins and His Trio furnishing the tintinabulation for dancing after toasts to the past and best wishes for the future were exchanged.

Arranged and smoothly conducted by VOICE staffers Richard Williams and Robert Johnson, assisted by social columnist Eddy K. Kim, the soiree proved such an enjoyable occasion that VOICE publisher Dr. Charles I. West and Mrs. West announced that henceforth it would be an annual affair.

Among those participating (caught by the camera from top to bottom in rows from left to right and seated from left to right at each table) were: (1) Mrs. Donald Kirkland, Mrs. John (Eddy) Kim, Mrs. Charles (Dottie) West, Mrs. Henry Moore, Curtis and Mrs. Hall, with Robert Reid of VOICE staff left rear; (2) from rear, Terry Johnson, Janice House, Herschel Williams, Virginia Jackson and Rae Lea Jones; (3) Mrs. Natalie Arrington, Robert and Mrs. Tierney; (4) Mrs. Donald Kirkland and Mrs. David Hoggard, Sr.; (5) Earl Brunner, Earlene Ward, Frank Kology, George Ward, Quentin Klingler and Cynthia Munch; (6) Elizabeth Bennett, William Evans, Herbert Freeman, Virginia Avery, Jerry Holloway, Mary Bowie and Herbert Kelly; (7) Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perkins; (8) H. P. Fitzgerald, Dr. Charles I. West, Henry Moore, and George King of the VOICE; (10) Ralph Clark, Minerva Johnson and Donald Clark, the Clarks being cousins of the VOICE's Richard Williams from Bakersfield, Calif.; (11) Loraine Johnson, Georgia Skandros, Ann Mask, Faye Haney and Ruth Dean.

An Alabama court order barring the NAACP from operating in that state has been unanimously reversed by the Supreme Court.

In delivering the decision, Justice John Harlan said, "Should we unhappily be mistaken in our belief that the Supreme Court of Alabama will promptly implement this disposition, leave is given the association to apply to this court for further appropriate relief."
