by SONDRA REID

DELICIOUS french-toasted ham sandwiches are sure to please the youngsters as well as the adults. Serve them with tasty applesauce, plenty of chilled grape juice, and a simple dessert such as instant vanilla pudding topped with fresh strawberries.

well beaten eggs with 1/2 cup milk, 1/4 teaspoon salt, and a dash of pepper. Dip each sandwich into mixture, coating each side well. Cook sandwiches on both sides in a small amount of butter until heated thru and browned. Serve immediately.

PERHAPS you'd like to serve fresh green beans, now plentiful, in a beef-flavored sauce gently spiced with dill and savory.

A QUICK BREAD is good any time of the year but is especially easy on the cook in warm weather. The molasses nut loaf suggested for next Friday can be served as a dessert or spread with cream cheese for sandwiches.

DARK COTTON JACKET DRESS

The season-spanners (jacket dresses) are beginning to show again.

This means you had better shake the sand from your shoes, stir yourself from the sun and do something about getting back into clothes. If you don't, fashion will out-distance you again.

No one is suggesting that you get on the dark side of fashion right here and now in this summer heat. The lighter the color the cooler, and that would get our vote since summer has just cloves, and allspice. Cream 1/3 cup shortening with 1/2 cup sugar in a large bowl. Add 2 eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in 1/2 cup molasses and 1 teaspoon grated orange rind; blend well. Add flour mixture alternately with 1/2 cup cold water or strong coffee. Stir in 1 cup chopped walnuts. Turn mixture into a greased loaf pan 9 by 5 by 3 inches. Bake at 350 degrees for 50 to 60 minutes or until done.

really arrived. But it is recommended you take notice that the fashion you will be looking high and low for in another month or two is currently available.

As you may remember from past experience, when the time does come for these little-jacketed costumes, you will be faced with winter wear. The stores don't have anything against you personally, they just move in different cycles from your needs. They try to anticipate and because they do, you're ready to launch right into a season long before it arrives.

Then pity for the slow sister who waits for outward signs of turning leaves and nippy breezes before planning her wardrobe.

Many of these in-between summer and fall ensembles are ideal for traveling right now. With air conditioning everywhere, the idea of a mated jacket is foremost in the mind of every girl on the move.

The big advantage these jacket-dress combinations offer is that they have the look of going places. They are cool to wear with the sleeveless dress and yet the jacket can be worn during Indian summer days.
