

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

UNIQUE . . . COLORFUL . . . TASTY . . . That's how we would have to describe the Calendar Tea hosted by the Missionary Society of the Second Baptist Church last weekend. Each month of the year was represented by a table decorated to portray some peculiarity or historical event associated with that particular segment of the calendar. Pouring from the center table was Missionary Society president Mrs. William Thomas and Mrs. Mary V. Smith.

A table depicting April chaired by Mrs. Charlie Washington won first prize with its green nylon umbrella, set off by beautiful peas, warding off an "April shower" of crystal tear drops.

July took second prize with its red, white and blue motif calling attention to Independence Day, July 4th. Chairman Mrs. Booker Singleton's corsage was a white orchid tie with a red and blue ribbon.

Third prize went to June and General Chairman Mrs. Joseph O'Neal, who carried on bravely despite a broken foot. This table, with its "Rings and Rice" motif, paid tribute to the June bride.

Other outstanding tables included March, chaired by Mrs. Mary V. Smith, which featured Easter eggs, a Crucifix and Madonna, and December, chaired by Mrs. Joe Roger Johnson, with its Christmas tree.

Judges included the Rev. V. C. L. Coleman, Mrs. E. R. Walker, Samuel O'Neal and Anderson Simmons. Arrangements chairman was Mrs. Bessie Robinson. We were happy to have the opportunity to exchange greetings with Mrs. V. C. L. Coleman, striking in a red hat; Mrs. Tony Jackson, Mrs. Morris Miller, Mrs. Tommy Davis, Mrs. Beulah Jones and many others.

A GALA BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION. . .

We can still hear from afar the staccato click of organ music and the stamping of feet in a furious fandango as Mrs. Roy DeHay hosted a surprise birthday party for her husband, Dr. DeHay, who told us he is well acquainted with some of our old San Francisco friends, including United States Attorney Cecil Poole.

Mrs. DeHay was charming as she greeted her guests in a Chinese dress from Hong Kong. Among those present were the Theodore Nelsons, Johnnie Crocketts, Fred Bates, Mack Smiths, Harvey Jones, William Golophens, Banks, Hoppers, Potts, Rev. and Mrs. Jeffrey Wesley, the Misses Ruth Miller, Marie Pratt, Linda Ward and Muriel Harris, and Booker and David Burney and Mack Edwards.

REUNION AND TRAVEL TIME . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Thompson of Los Angeles were house guests of Mrs. Beatrice Porter . . . Mrs. Rae Wilton Stone, childhood friend of Mrs. Charles I. West, saw the town with our gal Dottie.

VEGAS VISITOR--Prominent Louisiana churchwoman Mrs. Daisy Jones Harris (above), mother of Mrs. Esther Jones Langston, has been visiting Las Vegas. Mrs. Harris is vice president of Mt. Herman District Association and secretary of Vice President Council of National Baptist Convention of America. She is member of Galilee Baptist Church of Shreveport where Rev. E. Edward Jones is pastor.
