

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

IT'S LOVE IN BLOOM . . .

Bowls of multi-colored flowers decorated the attractive, spacious home of Atty. and Mrs. Charles Kellar to provide a delightful setting for the 7 p.m. wedding that united the former Helen Smith of Los Angeles and James Anderson of Las Vegas. Beautiful white wedding bells encompassed the altar area where the Rev. Marion Bennett performed the twilight ceremony.

The bride wore a baby blue chiffon gown with a short over-blouse of Calais and Lyons lace that had been designed and hand-made by her cousin, Mrs. Ollie Herndon. Helen wore matching lace gloves and shoes and carried a bouquet of white orchids and baby-breath. The bride's cousin, Mrs. Owen Smith of Los Angeles, was her matron of honor. Mrs. Smith wore pink lace with matching gloves and shoes and carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink roses.

Nicholas Paglia, a friend and business associate of the groom, stood as best man. Giving away the bride was Roland Glover, who motored up from Los Angeles with his wife and children. Mrs. Kellar wore a full-length Hawaiian hostess gown of green brocade and her spouse complemented it with a matching coolie jacket picked up while they were in Hawaii. Assisting Mrs. Kellar with hostess duties was vivacious Marjorie Elliott in black and white chiffon and yours truly in pink imported chiffon.

Following the ceremony the bridal party received in the Kellar patio, where tables decked out in gleaming white cloths and flowers had been placed around the pool. Champagne and canapes were served from a buffet and soft music created a romantic atmosphere as their guests wished the popular couple every happiness.

The bride has been a speech therapist for the Enterprise School District in Los Angeles. Her son, Robert Fisher, attended the wedding and watched his mother admiringly. Others up from Los Angeles for the wedding included Mmes. James Herndon, Bertha Anderson, Betty Smith, Miss Sharon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Terrell and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCleave and daughters Sharon and Beverley.

The guest book read like a local Who's Who and included the signatures of several state and county officials, including State Assemblymen Flora Dungan and Bernard Posin, Clark County Commissioner (and Mrs.) Ralph Denton, Las
