

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

THE PATH TO WEDDED BLISS . . .

It was right up the steps of the Clark County Court House for the former LaNeal Lucas, lately of Gary, Ind., and Mr. Lee Rayford, formerly of Fordyce, Ark. LaNeal is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josh Lucas of Gary and her new husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of Fordyce.

Eddye K. Kim

A graduate summa cum laude of Arkansas AM&N College, Lee met his bride on the campus of the Pine Bluff school, which she also attended. He received his master's degree from the University of Arkansas and taught elementary school in Fordyce before coming to Las Vegas.

Lee will join the staff of the Highland School here this month and LaNeal will teach at Matt Kelly. . . Returning to Fordyce soon is James Shelton, who will resume his teaching position at the local high school.

TRAVELERS ON THE SCENE . . .

Recently returned from an extended trip east and the New York World's Fair are the James Bowies and their niece, Loretta, who are settled in their new Continental Village home. . . In from a Chicago vacation and a stop-over with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Lewis, is Mrs. Eulah Alexander of Los Angeles. Also visiting Mrs. Lewis are former Las Vegas Mrs. Juanita Coleman and her daughter, Glenda, now of LA. . . Mr. and Mrs. Kermit R. Booker, Sr., attended the recent Grand Conclave of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity at the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco. The theme of the conclave, which attracted delegates from all 50 states, was "Training for Leadership." In addition to the business agenda, the Kappas and their ladies of the auxiliary Silhouettes enjoyed a number of formal and informal social gatherings at the Sheraton Palace and other swank Bay Area spots, including a dance in the Bermuda Palms Ballroom at San Rafael hosted by the Pan Hellenic Council. The Bookers also enjoyed a boat cruise and sight-seeing tour of the Bay Area.

One of the outstanding affairs of the summer social season is slated for tomorrow night, Aug. 14, when the Las Vegas Women's Democratic Club West will celebrate its first birthday with a dance in the Gold Room of the Convention Center. Everyone interested in the activities of this live-wire group is invited to attend, including candidates at the forthcoming elections. See you there!

NEWLYWEDS--Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rayford climaxed a campus romance at Arkansas AM&N College with their recent marriage here. The former LaNeal Lucas will teach at Matt Kelly School and Mr. Rayford will be on the staff at Highland School (See 'Who's Who')

Negro Principal in Newark

NEWARK, N.J.--The first Negro principal in Newark's school system in more than half a century received her appointment from the city board of education last week.

Dr. E. Alma Flagg has been placed in charge of the Hawkins School in the Ironbound section, which has a considerable white student body.

The only previous Negro principal in Newark was James M. Baxter, who headed Newark's old Colored School for 45 years. He retired in 1909, shortly before his death.

Dr. Flagg finished second in written and oral competitive examinations. She was among nine new principals appointed last week.

Dr. Flagg became vice principal of the Garfield School last year after 20 years as a teacher. She holds a Doctor of Education degree from Columbia University. Her husband, J. Thomas Flagg, is a Newark school teacher.
