

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

"THE LITTLE CHURCH OF THE WEST"

This Mecca for celebrities en route to wedded bliss was the scene of Martha Chambers Hines' marriage to Donald Byron McCune on August 12. Martha was radiant in a turquoise blue lace sheath. She carried a white bible with a single white orchid that was later worn as a corsage. The bride is a widely traveled west coast socialite and public school supervisor of child welfare in San Francisco. She has participated in numerous community projects and international affairs. The handsome groom is a popular car salesman for Waters Buick ("a first") in San Francisco. He formerly lived in Buffalo, N.Y.

Arrangements for the ceremony were made by Mrs. Till B. Toms, prominent local businesswoman, who is a close friend and sister Link of the bride. The new Mrs. McCune is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and also organized the San Francisco chapters of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority.

A post wedding supper was served in the Le Bistro room of the Riviera Hotel, after which the happy couple retired to their honeymoon chambers in the Sahara Hotel bridal suite. They will be at home to friends at 401 Victoria St., San Francisco.

A GALA "SURPRISE" PARTY.

What started out to be an exhibition of unusual personal and household gifts from the four corners of the earth by Mary Lee Brown at the Bonanza Village home of Mrs. Charles I. West turned into an impromptu "political convention" of sorts. Dottie proved equal to the occasion in her best Madison Ave. public relations manner, making sure that everyone was having a wonderful time and introducing candidates that included Flora Dungan, Dorothy Cannon (pinch-hitting for Sen. Howard), the Rev. Leo Johnson, Bernie Posin, Ruth and Andy Berg

COFFEE TIME!

The Nevada Voters League has three "Meet Your Candidates" coffee klatches scheduled for the coming week, leading up to the big League rally at the Golden West Shopping Center on August 28. Tonight, Aug. 20, Mrs. Emma Jones will be the hostess at 1101 Washington. Tomorrow night, Aug. 21, Mr. and Mrs. P. Fitzgerald will pour at 713 Monroe. On Monday night, Aug. 24, the Rev. and Mrs. Marion Bennett will do the honors at 1648 North 'J'.

IT'S A BOY!

A second son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid early last Saturday morning, Aug. 15, at Sunrise Hospital. Bob reports that Sondra and the new addition to the Reid household are doing "just fine."

freely governed by it?

AS A DEMOCRAT WHO BELIEVES the Constitution is a living, breathing document I urge all voters to make the choice, and I ask your support in both preserving and furthering the gains of these 30 years which have brought us unparalleled prosperity, freedom beyond anything yet attained in a still far from perfect world, and a society which has justified the faith of its founding fathers that free men governed by free institutions will meet their problems and responsibilities.

I have tried for a long time to find out what my opponent is for. He has made certain affirmations repeatedly, and I accept them without question. He is proud to be a patriot, he is a believer in God, an admirer of Thomas Jefferson, a believer in the Constitution and he is a red-blooded American.

I haven't the slightest doubt that he is all of these; he certainly is.

In weeks of intensive campaigning I have yet to find a Nevanad who is an atheistic traitor, who hates Jefferson and the Constitution, and who has green blood.

I wish to declare before this group that I accept, unless the contrary be proved, that the basic virtues of love and regard for God and country, regard for its institutions and laws, are common to all but a pathetic few in this land of ours.

I have no quarrel with the John Birchers and Barings when they endlessly proclaim their true-blue Americanism. I do, however, resent most keenly, both for myself and for countless others, their breast-beating insistence that they alone possess this virtue.

I do not believe Americanism to be a minority view, and I certainly do not believe patriotism and Godliness to be the exclusive property of any group.
