"I think Senators from the Western states will testify that in many legislative matters we are already taking our marching orders from Howard Cannon."

Frank Church, Idaho

"He is one of the most modest great men it has been my privilege to know. . . . There is no member of the Committee on Armed Services who is more diligent or more wise or more constructive."

Stuart Symington, Missouri

"We who have served with him on the Committee on Armed Services know of the wise counsel and advice which he always has available for the committee and its members."

Henry M. Jackson, Washington

"The United States Senate is a better body because you are a member. Long may you serve with the kind of honor, dedication, sincerity, knowledge and distinction with which your career has been marked."

Vance Hartke, Indiana

WHAT PRESIDENTS HAVE SAID ABOUT SEN. HOWARD W. CANNON

"Senator Howard W. Cannon knows the meaning of service in the deepest sense of the word. . . . He returned from war to serve his state and country in peace. . . . In his first term in the highest legislative body in the land, Senator Cannon has distinguished himself in his work in building and strengthening the nation and its resources abroad and at home. . . . I join you in saluting him and look forward to his continuing contributions to the welfare and progress of our nation."

John F. Kennedy

"The nation has taken note that at times of great crisis and critical events, the State of Nevada has sent great Senators to represent it in Washington. My friend, Senator Howard Cannon, is in that great tradition. I knew of his patriotism and dedication to the public good long before he came to the Senate. I was proud to work with him as Majority Leader, as Vice President, and now as President. I hope that he will continue the outstanding contributions he has already made in the fields of national defense, space, development of our natural resources, and the further development and progress of the State of Nevada. He possesses unquestioned ability, great knowledge of the problems that face this nation, and we will need his services in the future. . . . I consider Howard Cannon not only a personal friend, but the kind of official in whose integrity and ability the people can have confidence."

Lyndon B. Johnson

(Editor's note: It is the firm opinion of the VOICE that EVERY VOTER IN NEVADA should be guided by the statements of these outstanding American citizens in this fall's primary and general election. It is plain insanity to think of replacing Howard Cannon in the U.S. Senate. We must return Sen. Cannon to Washington. Read what other editors think of Cannon. C.I.W.)

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS ABOUT SEN. HOWARD W. CANNON

"There seems to be a unanimity of thinking about this forward-looking Nevadan who has done so much for our state in less than five years in the U. S. Senate. . . . his legislative committee work and his growing influence in Washington have helped channel programs our way."

Las Vegas Review-Journal

"There is much that Cannon has accomplished for Nevada that has earned him the appreciation of his state. . . . Howard Cannon works by day and by night to advance the cause of his state and nation."

Las Vegas Sun

"This steady scientific and technological advance in Nevada is more than mere federal whim. It represents fruitful legislative efforts by (See CANNON, page 23)
