

CAMPING TRIP HUGE SUCCESS

A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL camping trip at Lee's Canyon last month for members of the West Las Vegas Boys Club was reported by club directors Bob Reid and Earle White. (See camp photos page 13.)

Sponsors of the five-day encampment at the 8,000-foot high facility of the Clark County Dept. of Parks and Recreation, located 44 miles northwest of Las Vegas, included Las Vegas Kiwanis Club ($1,000), Judge David Zenoff's Youth Fund ($250), Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thayer ($50), County Commissioner Bill Briare and Walter Felgar ($50), Bob Bailey ($20), Friends of Youth, (athletic equipment and foodstuffs) and Operation Independence (reading material).

Reid and White expressed their thanks to the above-mentioned along with the Clark County Commission and Dr. Charles I. West, who personally examined all applicants for the camping trip, together with counselors John Redic, Cornell Kimble, Howard Hoye, Robert Fisher and Iberville Carter. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Williams served as cooks.

Boys who attended the camp, all between the ages of 8 and 16, included Guy Banks, Donald Campbell, Alex Griffin, Gregory Keyes, Geoffrey Keyes, Jerome Jackson, Martin Sharp, Gregory Willis, Michael Willis, Robert Wilson, Lonnie Banks, Thomas Calvert, Elie Vurtis, Leroy Wilson, Sammy Bland, Bobby Brown, Phillip Bell, Gary Gray, Kevin Graves, George Keyes, Bobby Lewis, Antonio Mitchell, Sterling McElroy, Robert Tidwell, Sheldon Hollimon, James Carr, Andrew Jackson, Alvin Lewis, Dean Lisby, Kerry Walker, A. sharpening her short game, she could well challenge Mickey Wright's supremacy among the women divot-diggers.

No woman has ever attained national championships in both tennis and golf. Mary K. Brown came closest to it some 35 years ago. It remains to be seen whether Althea Gibson can accomplish the feat and thus add another brilliant chapter to the illustrious history of Negro sports achievement.
