Music Class Under Way

In an attempt to add to the cultural enrichment of West Las Vegas Children, Mrs. Grace McGlothen, special education and music teacher at Matt Kelly School, is offering music lessons every Saturday morning from 9 a.m. to noon at Doolittle Recreation Center.

Mrs. McGlothen says she is presenting piano techniques that can be easily absorbed with proper application and enjoyed throughout a lifetime. She stresses that "music is a universal language."

Mrs. McGlothen studied music at the National Conservatory of Music in Panama City and received her B.A. degree with Cum Laude honors in 1953 from Bishop College, Marshall, Texas. She has continued her studies in music and special education at TCU, UCLA and USC.

In addition to her choral conducting, piano and organ teaching, Mrs. McGlothen recently was outstanding in her minor role in "Carousel", sponsored by the Musical Arts Workshop.
