

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

ISLAND THEME FOR GAY GARDEN PARTY.
The ladies all wore leis as more than fifty couples enjoyed a vicarious trip to Tahiti with the Progressive Women's Club at a tamarra held at the well-appointed home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams on D Street. As each couple entered, the man was given a lei to present to his wahine in the traditional manner.

Substituting for the roast suckling pig as the piece-de-resistance was fresh pineapple, which along with other fresh fruits doubled as decorations and dessert.

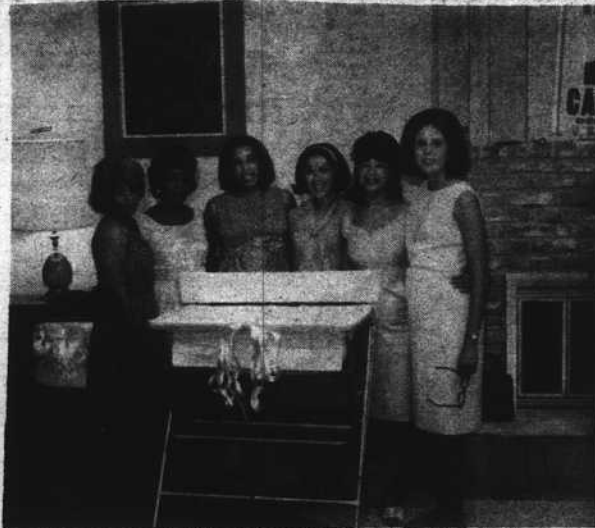

The evening affair was designed to raise funds toward the purchase of a hospital chair for the club's favorite charity.

Eddy K. Kim

Many couples came in from California for the occasion, including Mr. and Mrs. James Townsend, Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, Los Angeles (see photo); Mr. and Mrs. John Easley and Mr. and Mrs. John Rhodes, San Diego.

Officers of the club are Mrs. Jason Irving, president; Mrs. Larry Burton, vice president; Mrs. Beatrice Harris, secretary; Mrs. Elmo Terry, treasurer. Members on hand for the party included the Mmes. Sam Collins, Alexander Johnson, Luetisher Woods and Phillip White.

PROGRESSIVE WOMEN'S PARTY--Upper photo shows members of Progressive Women's Club who helped stage recent fund-raising party at home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams. From left: Mmes. Williams, Elmo Terry, Perry Rose, McKinley Diggs, Jason Irving (president), and Larry Burton. Other members present but not pictured were Mmes. Beatrice Harris and Sam Collins. Lower photo shows California guests Mr. and Mrs. James Townsend (right) and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins. (See "Who's Who")

IT WAS A BABY SHOWER . . . in honor of their sorority sister, Mrs. Andrew Arrington, hosted by the Mmes. Robert Reid, Charles I. West (at whose lovely and spacious home the affair was held), Robert Bailey, J. David Hoggard and yours truly. Many of Natalie's old (not really "old") teaching friends came laden with gifts and the usual stork games were enjoyed along with champagne and canapes and hors d'oeuvres prepared by Eunice Lowe.

ARRINGTON BABY SHOWER -- Upper photo shows sponsors of recent baby shower for Mrs. Andrew Arrington. From left: Mmes. John Kim, J. David Hoggard, Andrew Arrington, Robert Bailey, Charles I. West and Robert Reid. Lower photo shows participants, (front from left): Mmes. Henry Moore, Arrington, Onward Abington, Charles Kellar, Alice Geil. Second row (from left): Mmes. H. P. Fitzgerald, Joe Knight, Frank Anderson, James Walden, George Cook, Rick Miller and Edward Weinstein. Rear: Mrs. Earle White (left) and Mrs. Sidney Bishop.

TRAVELLING TO LOS ANGELES by motor were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walker and Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. Joe Knight, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard, who stood as God-parents for the Walkers' adorable daughter, Richelle. Following the christening, the Howards hosted a reception at their home. Mrs. Knight attended the Sunday Morning Breakfast Club at the Ambassador Hotel during her stay in the big town.

FEMININITY WAS THE STAR . . . or at least that was the "message" of the fashion show at the Dunes Hotel staged by the Women's Democratic Club of Clark County.

Joseph Magnin clothes and jewels provided the "working materials" for the show and the attractive models made the most of them. The expert touch of Magnin's Pam Law was very much in evidence.

Every woman present fell in love with "those Italians" as knit wear took to the runway. Fortunately, these love affairs won't hurt any husbands except possibly in the pocketbook.

Then, too, there was the little black dress that became the rage of Paris and the "go-go" set. Jets whisked the novelty to New York and now the novel garment has made its appearance in quite a few swinging cities on this side of the Atlantic. It's called "Discotheque"--diskoh-tek--a French-coined word describing the hi-fi hideaways where the dress is worn in the near-dark to recorded music. The term may become as common as "a la mode" one of these days.

Also shown were some brilliant ball gowns --certainly fit for any inaugural celebration.

Library Student Aid

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR READING on Wednesday and Friday. Viola Harris, a student at Nevada Southern University, is in charge of the library evenings and Saturday. Students are invited to use the library for study and special tutoring assistance is available to students upon request.

The library is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday. Evening sessions are from 6 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday; from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday.

BALTIMORE, Md. --Complaints of racial discrimination against owners of bars and taverns near Ft. Meade are being investigated by the Maryland Interracial Commission.

Executive Secretary Parren J. Mitchell of the MIC said complaints have been lodged by both military and civilian personnel at the Army post.

HOW'S YOUR TV

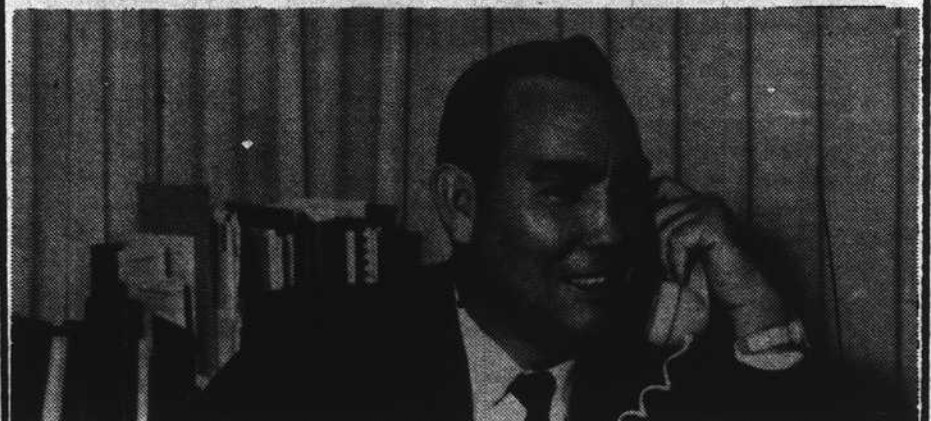

ATLAS TV & REPAIR SHOPS

NOW TWO STORES
TO SERVE YOU BETTER
404 WEST BONANZA & EAST MALL
GOLDEN WEST SHOPPING CENTER

EXPERT TV REPAIRS

382-5937
649-1117

BOSSSES CAN'T BUY THIS GUY!

ELECT

BERT LEAVITT . . .
COUNTY COMMISSIONER

MARV'S CLEANERS

NO EXTRA CHARGES for SPECIALS
1402 'D' Street Phone: 384-3548