NEVADA CAN BE PROUD OF SENATOR HOWARD W. CANNON

In Senator Howard Cannon's first term in the United States senate, he has compiled a truly outstanding record. The only member of his party to serve on four standing senate committees, Senator Cannon continually demonstrated his effectiveness for Nevada in the Nation's capital. As the Senate advisor to the United Nations Committee on Peaceful Uses of Outer Space and as chairman of the Military Committee of the NATO Parliamentarians, Cannon has made important contributions to world peace and national security. This is the man to continue to represent Nevada and the nation in the U.S. Senate. Yes, Nevadans can be proud of United States Senator Howard Cannon.

AFRICAN MARTYRS CANONIZED--Pope Paul (right) greets American Cardinal Spellman (left) at St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City just prior to ceremony in which 22 Uganda tribesmen were made saints of Roman Catholic Church for refusing to renounce their faith in late 19th century. All were slain by King Mwanga, Uganda despot. Rear is Cardinal Ottaviani, with Msgr. Dante in foreground. (See "Africa Today", page 2)
