The bride was lovely and radiant in an original Champagne brocade silk two-piece suit designed for her in Hong Kong, by Roy Lynn. A satin pill box hat held her face veil. She wore short satin gloves, and matching Champagne brocade silk slippers. She carried a white bible and two orchids formed her bridal bouquet. The "something borrowed" was a blue garter.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Harry McElroy, of Las Vegas. Mrs. James Johnson, was her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Joe R. Jones, was her Aunt's maid of honor.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. Willie R. Johnson and little Miss Palma Johnson served as flower girl. They were dressed in Rainbow colors of chartreuse, blue and yellow nylon short skirts topped with lace bodices and matching Dior head pieces with short veil. They carried matching carnations.

Nathaniel's best man was his Uncle Eddie B. Fleming.

Ushers seating the guests were Joe R. Jones, and William A. Jones, the bride's nephew, who came from Jackson, Miss.

At the beautiful Regal Estate home of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Smith, where the reception was held, the newlyweds received their guests with their parents. Mrs. Albert Hughes wore a beige brocade silk. Mrs. Samuel McElroy was in a soft blue lace. The sister of bride, Mrs. William A. Jones, Sr., wore a two-piece white cocktail suit. All looked elegantly dressed with their carnation corsages.

In the dining room, where caterer Eunice Lowe had set up the reception table, everything was there from chicken to caviar. Champagne bottles popped all evening as ushers kept them going. At the table was Fred Bates, who gave the host a big helping hand.

Others serving as hostesses were Mrs. Perry Fortsom (groom's Aunt), Johnnie Hughes (groom's brother), Mrs. Margie Collins, Mrs. Theodore Lewis and Mrs. Harry McElroy.

Guests spotted included Judge and Mrs. Walter Richards, Mrs. Carrie Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. James Merrion, Mr. and Mrs. George Dollar, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. James Walden, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Roy Newell, Mrs. Sammie Stower, Mrs. Shirley McDaniels, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Danny Owens, Mrs. Wilbur Jones, Sr., Mr. Joe Whitaker, Mr. Curtis Jones, Miss Thelma Reese, Mrs. Eddie B. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. V. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Roy Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jones.

The newlyweds honeymooned in California. Mrs. Hughes is a nurse at Sunrise Hospital and the groom is in business here.

"THEY'LL BOW IN WHITE"...

Come December 26, and getting into the social whirl will be the lucky girls who have been chosen by the members of the Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve) for the club's first "coming out" ball. Meanwhile, the debutantes have a busy calendar ahead of them.

Among the first debs chosen was Deborah Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Roberts. After graduating from Gorman High School, Deborah will enter San Francisco State College next fall and plans to major in business. Deborah, is president of the Alpha Deb Club,
