Dear Sir:

We, the members of Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve), a newly organized community service club, are sponsoring a "Debutante Ball" as our first major social activity. We are sponsoring this ball as an incentive for young girls to aspire toward achieving those qualities which develop mature, cultured and refined young women. This year we are planning to present ten young ladies.

To enable the club to publish a Souvenir program booklet, we need the support of the local businesses. Therefore, we ask you to consider purchasing an ad from us. The cost of the ads are, $50 for a whole page, $25 for half of a page, $12.50 for a fourth of a page and $6.25 for an eighth of a page. A representative from the club will come to your establishment between November 2nd and November 20th. Our solicitation permit number is 1412.

We sincerely appreciate your cooperation.

Les Femmes Douze
(Mrs.) Barbara Kirkland
Chairman, Souvenir Program

Dear Dr. West:

The tremendous cooperation we are getting from your paper leaves me speechless. We deeply appreciate your interest in our program. With this kind of cooperation, I am sure, together, we can help this community and its people toward a better way of life.

Sincerely yours,
John Walker, Principal

Dear Dr. West:

As mentioned in our telephone conversation of several days ago, I had a memo on my desk to write you a note of congratulations on your forthrightness in exposing the recent effort to buy votes in West Las Vegas.

After the telephone discussion it seemed unnecessary to write the note, but the overwhelming victory of yesterday (Nov. 3) so vindicates your stand and so confirms one's confidence in the basic honesty of our citizenry that I must write this note regardless. . . .

Neither Negro nor Caucasian voters, or voters of any ethnic group, can be bought or sold in these days of renewed proud citizenry, and anyone who attempts to bribe or who accepts is either a charlatan or a fool.

My congratulations on your victory of conscience, and my warm personal good wishes.

Cordially yours,
Marc Wilkinson
Las Vegas
