

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

A CAUSE CAN BE FUN . . .

Working for a worthy cause is enobling. And having fun at it makes it all the more interesting according to Mrs. Marion Bennett, president of Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve), who claims her group is really enjoying the hard work necessary to prepare seven local girls for their formal bow to society at the Cotillion Ball scheduled for the Gold Room of the Convention Center on Dec. 26.

This will be a "first" for Las Vegas and we salute these ladies who are sponsoring the ambitious affair. The ball will be by invitation and strictly formal--so if you are among the lucky invites, be sure you have the proper attire all ready for the big occasion.

Although the debs and their escorts will dance cotillion measures following the presentations, there will be quite a number of waltz numbers on the program. Waltzing seems about to become a lost art in these fast-stepping days, but with a little practice, its not difficult to master and I'm sure the young ones will look like professionals by the time Dec. 26 rolls around.

Meanwhile, the pre-ball party whirl continues for the debs and their favorite boy-friends. And if you think the Twist is passe and that the Jerk has taken over the floor, we'd have you know that the modern version of the Shimmy is still the most popular dance when the younger set hits the boards--with or without shoes!

HERE AND THERE, 'ROUND THE TOWN...

AN INTERESTING TALK on India and Pakistan by Mrs. Audrey Brown featured a tasty luncheon at the home of Mrs. Helen Anderson. Mrs. Brown, the wife of former Review-Journal

AWAIT COTILLION-- These two attractive young ladies will be among those making bows at Cotillion Ball being sponsored by Les Femmes Douze at Convention Center Dec. 26. Left is Miss Barbara McCants, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCants. Right is Miss Sandra Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker. Miss McCants is a member of the Student Enforcement Committee at Gorman High School and plans to attend San Diego State University. Miss Parker is a member of the Girls Glee Club at Western High School and plans to attend business college. (See "Who's Who")

IT WAS A STOP-OVER for Scott Wolf, en route from his Honolulu home to the National Social Welfare Workers Conference meeting in Chicago. Mr. Wolf is director of the Salvation Army Children's Home in Kai Mu Kia, Hawaii. He was met at the airport by his friend, Earle White and Mrs. White, who took Scott on a quick tour of the city and its environs that included lunch at a Strip hotel.
