

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

LET'S GET IN SHAPE FOR CHRISTMAS!

Only two weeks to go. Now is the time (if it isn't already too late) to take deep breathing exercises and indulge in relaxing hot baths--followed by cold ones if you can take it. A few laps around the race track every morning at dawn wouldn't be a bad idea, either. For the Christmas party season is upon us!

Don't forget to observe the Golden Rule by admiring your friends and appreciating their efforts to entertain you--even as ye hope they will do for you. Even if it kills you.

Saturday's big Governor's Gala and Grand Centennial Finale at the Hotel Sahara should provide all of you with a good early test of your condition for the strenuous days immediately ahead. Apparently everyone of any importance intends to be on hand to help Governor Grant Sawyer celebrate his birthday and congratulate the state's chief exec on his selection as chairman of the National Governors Conference. That was quite an honor for the other governors to bestow on Nevada and a splendid tribute to Governor Sawyer's ability and charm. Our little (population-wise, that is) old state could stand more of this sort of thing.

As you probably all are aware by now, Mrs. Sargent Shriver Jr., the former Eunice Kennedy and sister of our late, beloved president, John F. Kennedy, will be with us Saturday night as a representative of Jackie Kennedy. That's certainly another feather in our collective cap.

All arrangements for the dinner and ball are on a non-political basis at the insistence of the Governor and all proceeds will go to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library Fund.

as vice chairman, Herb McDonald as secretary and Sam Boyd as treasurer. Directors include Senator Alan Bible, Mayor Oran Gragson and Judges Roger Foley and Bruce Thompson.

Committee members include our own Dr. Charles I. West and Jimmy Gay, both of whom are sub-committee chairmen, together with Mrs. C. Gail Address, Bryn Armstrong, Norman Biltz, Al Bramlet, Bill Briare, Bob Brown, Wilbur Clark, Ray Culley, William Daley, John DiGrazia, Jack Foy, Walter Geary, Dutch Horton, Bob Keyser, Paul McDermott, Dr. Harry McKinnon, William Mooney, Dr. Robert Morrison, Sam Paternostro, Mrs. George Phillips, Major Riddle, Mrs. Henry St. Amand, Art Smith, E. Parry Thomas, Bill Willard, William Woodburn and John Wright.

If you can't make the dinner ($25 a plate), you should plan to attend the ball (only $5 a couple). The Jimmy Cook orchestra will furnish the tintinabulation for dancing. And we understand The Rounders will play for the concurrent teenagers fling at the Convention Center.

This affair will help prepare you for other upcoming parties such as next Tuesday's (Dec. 15) open house at the new Hughes Beer Emporium and Package Liquor Store, 507 West Jackson, and the Holiday in Fashions and Hair Styling on Dec. 20 at Sarah Anne Knight and Marge Elliott's Playhouse Lounge at 'E' and Jackson.

HERE AND THERE, 'ROUND THE TOWN...

Speaking of ye editor and publisher, Dr. Charles and Dottie West entertained Count Basie and the Marshall Royals on the occasion of Marsh's recent birthday and they'll host the Bob Reids, Earle Whites and Bob Baileys at the Basie show at the Flamingo this eve in honor of Bob R. and Earle's admission to the Nevada bar. Bob B. once sang with the Basie orchestra... Principal Don Hayden of J.D. Smith Junior High entertained members of his faculty at his beautiful Palm Circle Drive home in Twin Lakes, followed by dinner and dancing at the Moulin Rouge.

DEBUTANTES--Pamela Mason (left) and Rose Carroll are among those who will make bow to society at Cotillion Ball sponsored by Les Femmes Douze at Convention Center, Dec. 26. Miss Mason is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Mason and a senior at Rancho High, where she plays clarinet in band and belongs to Future Teachers of America. She plans to major in Spanish and minor in music at University of Arizona. Miss Carroll, daughter of Mr. Saul and Rev. Mary Carroll, also is Rancho senior and honor student, a musician and plans to major in business law at Arkansas AM&N College at Pine Bluff.
