

Kelly Pupils Present Top Christmas Show

"SILENT NIGHT" filled the air with children's voices proclaiming their understanding of Christmas in a holiday pageant presented at Matt Kelly School last week. The well-rounded musical program was a testimonial to hard, professional supervision by people who believe in the potential of the children they serve.

Outstanding in a notable production were the songs of 6th grader Robert McMillan and school librarian Mrs. Ida Perkins Grier. Backed by the school chorus, Robert rendered "The Little Drummer Boy" in a fashion worthy of our top recording artists. Mrs. Grier, who also led the 5th graders in choral speaking, again proved her versatility with her solo of "White Christmas".

William Johnson's newly formed school band acquitted itself in fine style despite only three months' training while a Christmas play was highlighted by the talented narration of Jacqueline Parson and Patricia Bailey. Included in the cast were Mary Neal, Dwight White, Chestine Green, Paulette Davis, Andre Nestor, Derrick McCall, William Hall, Charles Richmond, John Spencer, Ronald Allen and Ralph McKee.

The Patrol Boys added to the excitement of the fine program arranged by Mrs. Grace McGlothen and other members of the faculty.

ROBINSON "GRADUATES" Fine Christmas Program By Madison 3rd Graders

PRESENTATION of an award to Chief Custodian Edward Robinson featured a Christmas program at the Kit Carson School PTA meeting last week. The award was made by Robert Dalton, chief inspector for the school district, and marked the completion of Mr. Robinson's advanced course.

Another highlight of the program was an address by School Supt. Dr. Leland B. Newcomer. Musical numbers were offered by the school mixed chorus, flutophone band, instrumental band and the 6th grade choir.

MADISON SCHOOL 3rd grade pupils of Mrs. Doris Hooper and Mrs. Edna Perkins presented an interesting Christmas program last week featuring the pantomime performances of Christoffer Johnson as Bing Crosby and Geraldine Harvey, Pamela Chaney and Cecilia Quabner as the Andrews Sisters. Several poems, songs and a playlet also were on the program. Lorraine Brown delivered the welcome to parents and friends of the school. Music was by L. Smith.
