

WHO'S WHO and doing what

REPAYING AN INVESTMENT . . .

"Whatever I am today is the result of a lot of investment by a lot of kind people. I hope I have justified their faith in me."

We can assure the charming Margaret J. Simmons, our Teacher of the Week, that her hope has been fulfilled. For this teacher of exceptional children at Kit Carson School has attained high regard and many important positions in her chosen profession.

EDDY K. KIM

Just to mention a few of her achievements, she is presently Chairman of the Board of Governors of Pi Tau Sigma, the local Professional Teachers Society; director of the Speech Choir at Zion Methodist Church, and chairman of the War on Poverty Committee at Kit Carson.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mearimon Judkins of Smithfield, N.C., Mrs. Simmons was awarded the Johnston County Baptist Assn. scholarship for having the highest average of applicants from Cooper High School in Clayton, N.C.

She went on to earn her B.A. degree at Shaw University, Raleigh, N.C., and an M.A. from Columbia University Teachers College in New York City.

Following a short stint with the U.S. Census Bureau in Washington, D.C., she taught school in Beaufort, S.C.; Wilmington, Del; Apex, N.C. (where she was chairman of the Pre-School Clinic for four years) and then Las Vegas. Her tenure here was interrupted by a year at Ft. Bragg, N.C., where she taught dependent children.

A member of the Mental Health Assn., the Council for Exceptional Children and the American Federation of Teachers, Mrs. Simmons likes to sew and take photographs when she isn't occupied reading a good book. She is the wife of Anderson D. Simmons and the mother of six-year-old Ruth Andrea.

THE GREEKS HAVE A WORD FOR IT . . .

The word is "omorphia" (meaning beauty) and that's what we found ourselves surrounded by when a lovely group of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority sisters from Rho Chapter gathered at Zion Methodist for ceremonial group worship. Refreshments followed at the home of Mrs. Charles Kellar. Later in the day, the ladies met at Highland School for a Founders Day program, highlighted by the presentation of an Artist of Tomorrow and a historical review of the sorority by Basileus Thelma Toms.

Lovely Deborah Moore, program chairman, introduced budding vocalist Mark Ingram, who was well received, and the Zodiac Drill Team, which put on an excellent performance. Talented Mrs. Grace McGlothen also entertained with "moments of music."

Mementos of the occasion were presented the performers by Mrs. Moore, who was assisted by Mrs. Helen Crozier, a member of the committee along with Mmes. Helen Anderson, Ruby Garland and Edythe Abington. A reception followed.

There, we've run out of space already. See you all next Thursday.

NEW CLINIC FOR EYE-EAR AIDS NEEDY

A NEW, IMPORTANT SERVICE to citizens of Clark County with low incomes is being offered by Dr. H. B. Bernstein, with offices at 1414 Las Vegas Blvd. South.

Concerned by the knowledge that many persons with sight and hearing problems delay taking corrective measures until their conditions become acute because they cannot afford normal costs of treatment, Dr. Bernstein has opened the "Physician-Surgeon Eye & Ear Clinic" two nights a week.

Emphasizing that the new service is for those with low incomes ONLY, Dr. Bernstein will give free eye and ear examinations at his offices on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m. until further notice. He also will provide glasses and hearing aids at drastically reduced prices for those unable to afford regular rates.

Appointments may be made by phoning Dr. Bernstein at 382-2462.

A member of the NAACP in Greenville, N.C., for many years, Dr. Bernstein is a graduate of the Massachusetts College of (See CLINIC, page 10)
