Assembly Post to Negro Tailor

ALBANY, N.Y.--A 54-year-old New York City tailor last week was elected sergeant-at-arms of the New York State Assembly. William A. Wardlaw was said to be the first Negro to hold the position in 30 years.

Backed by Democrats who now control both houses of the State Legislature, Wardlaw succeeds a brewing company salesman from upstate Lowville who was elected to the job 12 years ago. The post carries a salary of $3,500 per session. A captain in the Democratic party's 13th Assembly district, Wardlaw lives in Harlem with his wife and son. He is active in Masonry, social work and church activities.

$35,000 Job For Negress

NEW YORK, N.Y.--A Negro attorney has been sworn in as New York City's first woman borough president. In assuming the presidency of the Borough of Manhattan, Mrs. Constance Baker Motely also became the nation's highest paid feminine public official at an annual salary of $35,000.

JUNIOR HIGH KIDS HELP "TRANSITION" OF SIXTH GRADERS

SECOND OF A SERIES of informal conferences designed to improve the preparation of elementary school students for junior high school academic and social experiences is scheduled for Madison School Monday afternoon, March 15.

Participating in the "workshop" project are a number of Roy Martin Junior High students, including Ivian Sloan, Tyrone Johnson, Jerrol Kato, Jimmy Snowden, Ruth Hopkins, Flora Lyons and Lewis Thrower. Dr. Joseph Caliguri, Madison principal, is monitor, assisted by speech therapist Mrs. Helen Anderson.

Continuation of the symposiums was requested by the junior high students following a trial session last week. Discussions at the original gathering touched upon such topics as social relations among Negro students moving up to junior high, integration in predominantly white schools, vocational aspirations, academic and other problems attendant to the transition from elementary to junior high schools.

Monday's agenda will include plans for the junior high students to hold separate meetings with each of the sixth grade classes at Madison for the purpose of panel-type discussions.

Martin's spent 8 years getting ready for tonight.

Now live a little!
