Rankin Concert Set For Monday Night

IN ONE OF HER final Las Vegas appearances for several years, soprano Elizabeth Rankin will present a concert in the Gold Room of the Convention Center next Monday, March 22, at 8 p.m. The benefit performance is sponsored by the Clark County Ministerial Association.

Mrs. Rankin will be accompanied by Sonia Cobb, a faculty member of the Music Academy of the West, Santa Barbara, founded by Mme Lotte Lehmann. Donations at the door will be $1.50 for adults and $1 for students.

Shortly after this appearance, Mrs. Rankin will go on her third annual tour for Community Concerts, Inc., affiliate of Columbia Artists Management. Part of her coming tour will be with Brian Sullivan, noted tenor of the Metropolitan and San Francisco Opera companies.

When she completes her contract with Columbia Artists, Mrs. Rankin and her two children will join her husband, Maj. James C. Rankin, in Oslo, Norway. Maj. Rankin, who has been serving as Commander of the 4534th Squadron at Nellis AFB, is the new U.S. Air Force liaison officer to the Norwegian Air Force for Allied Forces in Northern Europe.

Prominent in local music circles for the past three years, including featured appearances with Antonio Morelli's Las Vegas "Pops" Concert Orchestra, Mrs. Rankin's most recent triumph was as guest soloist with the Modesto Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Jan-Louis LeRoux and a 350-voice chorus for the Brahms "Ein Deutes Requiem." One critic wrote, "Mrs. Rankin's full, richly dramatic tones and lucid, flowing upper register are tailor-made for the soaring elegance of the oratorio. Brahms undoubtedly had someone exactly like her in mind when he wrote the fifth section of his requiem."
