

SPARKS HOSTS STATE PTA CONVENTION

SPARKS--"Nevada PTA Looks Ahead" will be the theme of the 1965 state Parent-Teacher Association convention scheduled for Sparks next Sunday through Tuesday, April 4-6. LaMar LeFevre, state president, will preside at the three-day gathering of delegates from throughout Nevada.

A get-acquainted dinner on Sunday, April 4, in the Sparks High School cafeteria will be hosted by Sparks units under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. William Finley and Mrs. Victor Giles.

Following the dinner, the first general meeting will be held in the Robert Mitchell School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The keynote address will be delivered by Mrs. Horace Johnson, Bridgeville, Pa., national vice president from Region 2.

Subsequent meetings on Monday and Tuesday are scheduled for the Sparks Nugget. Guest speakers are Dr. James D. MacConnell, professor of education at Stanford University, and Dr. William R. Odell, chairman of the committee on school administration at the Stanford University School of Education.

Included on the program is a summary of a state-wide project during the current school year based on the theme, "Looking In On Our Schools." Also scheduled are symposiums on various subjects such as mental health, school dropouts, vocational education, special education and juvenile detention hall facilities.

Registration of delegates is now in progress at the state PTA office, 921 17th St., Sparks. Southern Nevada delegates are urged to report at that address as soon after arrival in Sparks as possible.
