

LEADERSHIP COURSE AT CARSON SCHOOL

LEADERSHIP TRAINING of value to teachers, grade group leaders, aspirants for administrative positions in the school district, church workers and the public in general will be available every Thursday at 7 p.m. at Kit Carson School.

The course is being sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Nevada in cooperation with President Lyndon B. Johnson's War on Poverty program and will be under the direct supervision of the local 4-H office.

All costs of the project, which will be conducted on a workshop basis, are being defrayed by the federal government and attendance will be free of charge.

Another phase of the anti-poverty program will be discussed at Kit Carson today when Principal H. P. Fitzgerald meets with project chairman Dr. L. E. Shuck, Dr. Marvin Sedway, Highland School Principal Earl Brunner and others to plan future action regarding the food program in West Las Vegas schools.

It was announced that faculty staff president Hershel Williams will temporarily take over Principal Fitzgerald's duties while he is attending the state convention of the PTA at Sparks on Monday and Tuesday, April 5-6.

Principal Fitzgerald extended congratulations to the faculty and student body for "exceptional achievement" following release of a report that showed Kit Carson to have the best attendance record of any elementary school in West Las Vegas.

RECEIVES DEGREE--Miss Celeta Hunter of Denver recently received her B.S. degree in Special Education from Colorado State College at Greeley. Attending the graduation ceremony was John West of Las Vegas, who became acquainted with Miss Hunter while attending Colorado University. Mr. West presented Miss Hunter with a matched set of luggage as a graduation gift from the Dr. Charles I. West family.
