Cubs, Red Sox Tangle In Las Vegas Today

The Boston Red Sox of the American League and the Chicago Cubs of the National League will play baseball here April 8 in a good cause.

The spring exhibition games between major league baseball teams has become almost a tradition at Cashman Field in the last 10 years, affording Las Vegans the only opportunity, in many cases, to see major league baseball.

But most important, the game provides the sponsoring group, the Las Vegas Elks Lodge, with funds to carry out major portions of its public service program.

Much of the money generated at the gate is used in the many efforts of the Elks to benefit the county's young people and is certainly worthy of support.

An afternoon at a baseball game, with the knowledge that the gate receipts will be used in a good cause is a real bargain.
