him to reach the turn in 38, two over par. After that he tired rapidly and struggled home in four-over 40 for his 78.

Pete's trip to Las Vegas wasn't a total loss, however. He was awarded $1,025 for a 25th place tie in the field of 26 starters along with Paul Harney, who also was forced to retire after the second round due to a sinus condition. Harney went from a two-under-par 70 on Thursday to an 82 on Friday.

As related here last week, Pete's bad back had forced him out of five of the previous 13 circuit tournaments this year and his "official" winnings in 1965 now stand at $2,700, with $2,325 of that amount coming from $1,300 for a ninth place tie in the Texas Open at San Antonio two weekends ago and the $1,025 he received here. Last year he won $21,796, including the $2,700 he picked up for finishing first in the Waco Turner Open at Burneyville, Okla., the victory that qualified him for this year's Tournament of Champions.
