

DEMOCRATS BACK MIRABELLI, LEVY

INCUMBENT CITY COMMISSIONERS Phil Mirabelli and Harry Levy were unanimously endorsed for reelection on June 8 at an enthusiastic meeting of the Clark County Democratic Central Committee last Monday.

Chairman Gene Matteucci said the special meeting at the Showboat Hotel had been called at the request of "many Democratic Party members" concerned about organized efforts of Republican groups to "gain control" of the city commission.

Matteucci said it was imperative that the Democrats, who greatly outnumber registered Republicans in Clark County, work for the election of Democratic candidates on June 8 because the Republicans, through their official organizations, had disregarded the normally non-partisan complexion of the various city contests throughout the county by "openly plugging" for candidates of their party.

The large gathering at Monday's meeting shouted approval when Attorney George Foley moved that the Central Committee endorse "actively support" the candidacies of Mirabelli, Levy and all other Democrats running for office in Clark County, including Mayor William Byrne of Henderson.

Mirabelli faces Republican Bert Leavitt in the June 8 runoff and Levy will be opposed by Republican Grant Stewart as a result of the May 4 primary election.
