

Annual Awards Day At Madison Friday

ANNUAL AWARDS DAY at Madison School is scheduled for tomorrow (May 28) at 10 a.m. Awards will be made in the following categories --scholarship, citizenship, attendance and sportsmanship.

Scholarship awards will be presented to students in grades 3 through 6 who have earned A's in all the major studies, including reading, composition, spelling, social studies, arithmetic and science. All except science will be used as a basis for awards in the first and second grades.

Citizenship awards will go to students who have demonstrated good conduct and leadership in assuming responsibility.

Students who have not been absent or tardy for the second semester are eligible for attendance awards.

Sportsmanship awards will be presented to the outstanding athletes in boy and girl sports activities by James Gay, a member of the Nevada State Athletic Commission.

Prior to the awards presentations, a combined band of Madison, Matt Kelly and Highland schools students will render a selection of seven numbers starting at 9:45 a.m.
