

WHO'S WHO and doing what

MOON, SPOON and a WEDDING in JUNE...

Late spring and early summer has always been a favorite season for tying the proverbial conjugal knot, and Las Vegas is no exception to the tradition.

One of early June's loveliest brides was Miss Francine Bailey, who was joined in Holy Matrimony with Mr. Roosevelt McClendon, recently of Cleveland, Ohio, at the home of her father, Mr. John Bailey, who gave his daughter in marriage.

The Rev. J. L. Kemp performed the early evening ceremony against a hearthside background replete with huge baskets of gladiolas and white carnations.

The bride, striking in a beige gown of peau de soie with scalloped lace neck-line, beige gloves and blue shoes, carried a corsage of pink baby roses. Standing with her as matron of honor was her new sister-in-law, Mrs. William (Bob) Bailey, who wore beige silk with a transparent-effect top embroidered with white beads. Anna's flowers were pink carnations.

Mr. McClendon's best man was our own Mr. John P. West.

The newlyweds are both on the staff of Sugar Hill, owned and operated by the bride's brother, Mr. William (Bob) Bailey, prominent local realtor and TV personality.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Loyce Neal (she is a cousin to the bride), Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ricci Carter (celebrating six months of marriage), Mr. and Mrs. Tony Doran, the Mmes. Mildred Blackwell and Charles I. West, the Misses Carita Harbert and Delores Ewing, and Mr. Hollis Brown (who will soon claim Miss Ewing as his own "dearly beloved").

MARRY in MAY, ALWAYS BE GAY...

Another recent bride, who preferred the merry month of May for her nuptials, was the winsome Ethel Mae Brown, who went to the altar at the Second Baptist Church with Tom Willis to be united in wedlock by the Rev. V. C. L. Coleman.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Ealy of Las Vegas, was breath-taking in a long gown of white nylon and shoulder-length French veil. Her corsage was an old-fashioned nosegay of pale blue flowers. The groom, son of Mrs. Step Willis of Memphis, Tenn., was elegant in white tie and dark suit.

Attending the new Mrs. Willis, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. R. G. Reid, was her bridesmaid, Mrs. Lillie Bell Reid, and matron of honor, Mrs. Brenda Mason.

Mr. Sylvania Lloyd was Mr. Willis' best man while Mr. Jalal Omran served as usher. Missy Leola Street was a petite flower girl and Master Robert Mason was ring-bearer.

NOTES from HERE, NEAR and FAR...

Mr. and Mrs. John Hazzard of Denver, Colo., were the recent house guests of Mr. Larry Wilburn, popular bachelor-about-town... Mrs. Isaac White Jr., the local school-marm, has returned to her home in Oklahoma for an extended visit while her spouse, our final Teacher of the Week until the fall, is attending the Summer Institute in Mathema-

Paulist Missionary Used Unique Technique Here

REV. GEORGE NAGLE, who recently conducted a parish mission at St. James Catholic Church, has left Las Vegas for San Francisco, where he will conduct retreats for teenagers and married couples during the summer.

While here, the Paulist father from Detroit introduced a unique technique for reaching people according to Brother George Barton of the St. James staff. In describing the "Sermon Walk," Bro. Barton explained that many people apparently feel the Church no longer cares about them.

"So Father Nagle and I would walk around the parish, through alleys and such, just greeting people and being friendly," Bro. Barton said. "According to Father Nagle, the idea isn't new, nor is it necessarily a subtle method for recruiting converts. He said it is merely one way of showing people that someone cares for them--that God cares. He believes that a friendly greeting, a kind word and a smile, can help a troubled person more than many sermons."

SUPPORT the BOYS CLUBS

tics at the University of Idaho... Mr. Floyd Plymouth is motoring east to work on his master's degree in North Carolina... Mr. Howard King, former heavyweight boxing champion of Nevada and the only pugilist to go 50 rounds (five 10-rounders) with record-holding knockout artist Mr. Archie Moore, is serving as host at the new Black Orchid bistro. (How did that item get in here?!? Should be on the sports page!)... Jo Ann Wilson was among the Rancho High Students who received Girls Recreation Assn. sweaters at the recent GRA banquet. To earn a sweater, a girl must have been a GRA member for two years and have 1000 points to her credit. Congratulations, Jo Ann! Next year, as a senior, we want you to work real hard and garner those 1800 points that will entitle you to a GRA trophy... Dates to remember: Saturday, June 12, and a Night in Paris with the ladies of Alpha Temple at the local Elks Lodge, 416 West Bonanza Rd. Thursday, June 17, and the NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet at the Las Vegas Convention Center. Saturday, June 19, and the big June 'Teenth celebration at Sugar Hill. (All Texans please note.) See you there!
