DEBS PREPARE for BIG AFFAIR . . .

Plans for the 1965 Debutante Ball sponsored by Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve) are proceeding at an accelerated pace these days. Actually, preparations for this year's big affair were launched almost immediately after the inaugural event last Dec. 26 but it wasn't until just the other day that the coming season's crop of prospective Debs was gathered together at a Mother-Daughter Tea held at the beautiful Veronica Ave. home of Mrs. Samuel Taylor, sponsor of the LFD Mothers Club.

Mrs. Taylor introduced yours truly as chairman of the Mothers Club and it was our duty and pleasure to pass along a few suggestions to the young ladies, all in the final stages of their high school careers, who will make their formal bows at the 1965 Cotillion. The suggestions included:

Learn to "know" yourself thoroughly by taking an honest inventory of your strengths and weaknesses.

Don't be afraid to be "different" and recognize that others are entitled to be different.

Try to control your emotions and work hard to develop a serene attitude toward the stresses and strains of everyday living.

Learn to recognize and honor proper authority, but do not accept it blindly nor lash out at it in angry rebellion.

Cultivate femininity and learn to conduct yourself like a lady at all times, even when competing in sports or seeking scholastic attainment.

It was further suggested that it might be a good idea for the prospective Debs to form a permanent service club to work with other civic improvement groups and thus improve their image in the community. It was pointed out that the old saying about the Deb "who came out and went right back in" could never apply to members of a club actively engaged in public service.

"FOR WHOM the BELL TOLLS . . .

Business and professional women throughout the country who belong to Gamma Phi Delta Sorority are mourning the recent decease of their beloved founder and patron, Mrs. Elizabeth Garner, who started the organization in 1943 at Lewis Business College in Detroit, Mich., an institution owned and operated by her sister, Mrs. Violet Lewis. Unfortunately, Mrs. Lewis has been critically ill for some time and her doctors advised that news of her sister's passing be withheld from her indefinitely.

Mrs. Garner, who was married to Dr. James F. Garner, prominent Sacramento, Calif., surgeon, founded Gamma Phi Delta with the thought of emphasizing "quality rather than quantity" and charged the sorority to draw its membership from women of character and integrity dedicated to high principles who could blend good scholarship with good fellowship.

Members of the local Alpha Rho chapter of the national sorority are deeply saddened by the loss of their venerable sister but find solace in the knowledge that the Lamplighter's torch will burn long and brightly for Elizabeth Garner.

KEEPING TABS on TRAVELLERS . . .

Just back from an extended trip to eastern points are Mr. and Mrs. Amos Knighten, who attended the recent high school graduation of their niece, Janice Fox, in Farmville, N.C.; Enroute home they dropped in on Mr. Knighten's old, home town of Chicago, Ill. They are now entertaining Mrs. Clarence J. Artis, Mrs. Knighten's sister. . . Mrs. Patricia Brown of Los Angeles is the house guest here of her Godmother, Miss Carita Harbert. Pat is the
