granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Covan, headline dancers during the Golden Age of vaudeville. Mr. Covan is a noted choreographer and taught such famous artists as Eleanor Powell, Debbie Reynolds and Darryl Hickman at MGM and other major Hollywood film studios. Pat was a celebrity in her own right as a child, having appeared for several years on the Amos and Andy Christmas Show. She now teaches in the LA school system. . . Enjoying the sights of Las Vegas recently were the Mmes. Ellie B. Williams of Los Angeles and Josephine Sanders of Chicago. Mrs. Williams is the founder-owner of Style Millinery School in LA and national director of Gamma Phi Delta. She was all agog over the appointment of her granddaughter, Patricia Lee Davenport to the Library of Congress. Patricia attended Howard University in Washington with our own Bob Reid. . . Seems like Gamma Phi Delta keeps popping up in this week's roundup, for here we have a report from the White House that LBJ has just appointed a former honored guest of the local chapter to a $26,000 per year position on the new five-member Commission on Equality of Opportunity. Mrs. Aileen Hernandez, who is slated to serve for five years on the agency presently headed by Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., was a guest of Alpha Rho chapter at a Tropicana Hotel luncheon last year. Now one of the highest paid Negro women in government service, Mrs. Hernandez has been Assistant Chief of the California FEPC and an officer of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.
