

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

Those starry-eyed young ladies who will be presented to society at the second annual Debutante Ball of Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve) this fall have been launched on a busy round of parties following the recent Mother-Daughter Tea, including a dansante sponsored by the Debs Mothers Club at Doolittle Center, a weenie roast and patio party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Snowden and a pajama party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones. There will be a break in the busy routine as the girls return to school the week after next, but many other interesting events are on the calendar as summer moves into autumn, with the grand climax coming at the big Cotillion in November. And THAT will be a night long to be remembered by all those participating in this bright new highlight of the pre-Christmas season on the local scene.

HERE, THERE and SEEING the FAIR . . .

Socially prominent Mrs. Onward (Edythe) Abington entertained her Gamma Phi Delta sorority sisters at her lovely Regal Estates home and served a delicious summer repast that included a variety of melon balls, hors d'oeuvres and champagne punch. . . "Oh, to be young again!" (we sighed) as Mrs. Samuel (Ella Mae) Dawson told us about her pretty 15-year-old daughter, Nellie Mae, enjoying the World's Fair during a visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Randall, at Mt. Vernon, N.Y. Young Miss Dawson also made stops in Halifax, Va., and Detroit, Mich., during her extended eastern vacation and will have plenty to tell her Western High schoolmates this fall. . . "It's been a long time, sis," was the greeting of Mrs. Wallace Harris, Fort Worth, Tex., and Mrs. Al Grigsby, Los Angeles, as they arrived here for a reunion with their sister, Mrs. Mary V. Smith. Accompanying Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Grigsby were the former's son, Johnny, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hendricks and their son, Andre, the latter family also from LA. . . Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Shaw and son Paul of Biloxi, Miss., were the house guests of the H. P. Fitzgeralds. Mrs. Shaw teaches school in the Gulf Coast resort and her husband is an electrical engineer at a nearby Air Force base. Traveling with the Shaws was Clemon Jimmer-son, a student at Jackson (Miss.) State College. . . In town for three days as guests of the Loyce Neals were their neices from Toledo, Ohio--Mrs. Affrilla Belcher (with her 7-year-old daughter, Tracy) and Mrs. Patricia Chapman; also the Neals' nephew and niece from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chapman, and 15-year-old Ovet Chapman, their son. . . Here for a week as house guests of the Ike Romes were Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Williams and daughter Blanche of Blythe, Calif., while our own pride and joy, Jovonna, entertained the daughters of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Felix Goodwin from Tucson, Ariz., before spending a few days in Reno with her father, Joseph Williams, prior to heading back to school. . . And so, adieu, until next week. In the meanwhile, if you have an interesting item suitable for the column, please give us a buzz at 642-6333 or drop it off at the VOICE office in the Golden West Shopping Center with your name and phone number attached.
