

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

SEPTEMBER SONG . . .

As always, summer is ending on a note of "orderly confusion" . . . with the kids returning to school, some of the older ones off to distant colleges . . . teachers returning to their class rooms, with new ones being introduced around . . . yes, it's quite a whirl. Among those honored at recent "going away" parties for high school graduates of last June were Marion (Tony) Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wright Sr., and Larry Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper. Both of these Las Vegas High graduates received scholarships to Arkansas A. M. & N. College from the local alumni chapter of the Pine Bluff school. Tony was the first colored boy ever elected president of the Wildcat Band and his scholastic ability earned him membership in the National Honor Society. Larry was vice president of both the Madrigals, a group of LVHS students selected for outstanding singing voices, and the school a cappella choir, as well as a member of the band.

SURPRISE! SURPRISE! . . .

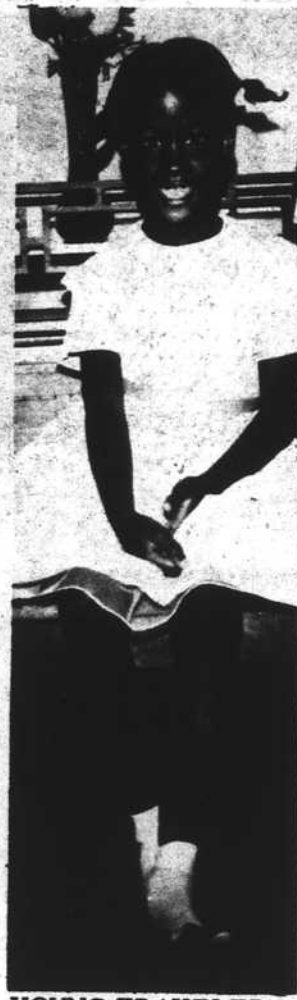

That delectable aroma that was wafted around the 1900 block on north Highland Drive the other evening came from the Henry Moore residence, where Deborah and daughter Vera put on a double-barrelled surprise birthday party for Henry Sr. and Jr. Among those joining in the celebration were the Earl Wynns (with young Renell, Byron and Alvin), Onward Abingtons, Paul Shephards, James Garlands (with son James), George Cooks, J. David Hoggards, Meldon Woods, James Roberts (with daughter Felice), John Moores (newlyweds), Andrew Arringtons (with Andrew III, and baby Eric, who stole the show with an exhibition of his new "teeth"), Arthur Jordans (with children Brian, Mike, Pamela, Colleen and Mark), Mrs. Joe Haynes, and the Messers Anthony and James Thomas, Charles Kellar and Ralph Roberson.

AROUND the TOWN . . .

We enjoyed the tasty barbecue served up by the Marvin Holtons in honor of their Labor Day weekend guests from Berkeley, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. John Sample and Mr. and Mrs. James Brown. Also on hand were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Haskins and Hershel Bolden. . . John G. Pearson, was welcomed home from the hospital in LA by his father, Dr. William U. Pearson, William U. III and adopted brother Randall Kenney, who motored in from Dothan, Ala. Another brother, Thomas, spent the summer in LA. Mrs. Pearson, a local teacher, has been busy entertaining house guest Mrs. Hattie Hall, financial secretary of the Atlanta Life Insurance Co. . . The Arthur Jordans also have had several guests in from various parts of the country, including Mrs. Jordan's stepmother, Mrs. Julius Madison of Sparta, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Rubin Fine of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Beatrice Brown, Santa Monica, Calif. . . It's a new Ralston Drive home for the Sidney Bishops and their youngsters, Chanda and Manuel, the latter

SURPRISE PARTY--Western High School department head Henry Moore Sr. and Henry Jr. pose with cleverly-designed cake created especially for their surprise birthday party arranged by distaff side of family, Mrs. Deborah Moore and daughter Vera. (See "Who's Who")

YOUNG TRAVELER--Ruth Andrea Simmons, 7, enjoyed World's Fair in New York and points of interest in Washington, D.C., during eastern trip this summer that included visits with grandparents in Raleigh, N.C., and Beaufort, S.C. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Anderson D. Simmons, teacher at Jo Mackey School. (See "Who's Who" this page.)
