FEMALE CORPSMEN ENJOY PROFITABLE SUMMER SEASON

FEMININE MEMBERS of the Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC) working with Operation Independence have spent a profitable summer in various worthwhile activities according to Mrs. Lubertha Johnson, Operation Independence director.

About 16 girls have served as aides at the Child Care Center operated by the "self-help" agency in Vegas Heights. Ten were members of a sewing workshop conducted by VISTA worker Margot Miller and Mrs. Kathleen Kincherlow. Eight have been learning the social graces, including fine points on "how to be more attractive and charming," under Mrs. Bernardine Anderson.

Girls in the sewing project are taught to make, mend and remodel clothes and have rendered important service to the Child Care Center by repairing sheets, spreads and blankets. Miss Miller holds a degree in Home Economics from Fresno State College while Mrs. Kincherlow is an expert seamstress, well-known for her work with big-name Strip groups and individuals.

Mrs. Anderson, who came to Las Vegas from New York City about a year ago, is a former model who studied at the famous Ophelia DeVore School in New York. She recently entertained her group at a barbeque and "splash" party at the Anderson home. (See photo)

Mrs. Johnson, who noted that the sewing and "charm school" groups are indebted to the Baker & Hazard realty firm for their West Owens Ave. facilities, said she will have a report for VOICE readers in the near future on boys' NYC activities coordinated by Operation Independence.

NELLIS, STEWART SCHOOL NEED VOLUNTEER AIDES

VOLUNTEERS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for service at Nellis AFB and a school for mentally handicapped children according to the Clark County Chapter, American Red Cross. Both men and women are being sought for hospital duty as well as to help at the Helen J. Stewart School, 201 E. Washington, Ave.

Non-paid positions are open for work in crans, nospital service, office work and social welfare. Men who like carpentry, wood-working and allied activities are needed to assist children in craft shop. Weaving and setting up looms will be taught those willing to help in this craft, while homemakers are needed to teach the slow learners simple sewing, cooking and housework. Any other hobby instruction will be welcomed to enrich the lives of handicapped children.

Office aides and those interested in social work would be welcome to help train Red Cross staff either at Nellis AFB or the local chapter.
