

NEW JO MACKEY SCHOOL DEDICATED ON PTA NIGHT

IMPRESSIVE DEDICATION CEREMONIES for Jo Mackey School were conducted at last week's regular monthly PTA meeting of the new "citadel of learning" in Regal Estates, with Rancho Attendance Zone Director James Williams delivering the principal address.

A feature of the colorful observance was the presentation of a photo of Mrs. Jo Mackey and her husband to the school by Mrs. Helen Conway, a friend of the late civic leader.

The flag salute was led by Travis Poole, recently elected first president of the Jo Mackey PTA unit, following invocation by the Rev. I. W. Wilson, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church. Choral numbers were rendered by the school's Intermediate Mixed Chorus under the direction of teachers Hershel Williams and Mrs. Bobbie Jean Smith, with members of teacher Shirley Satterfield's Girls Service Patrol serving as ushers.

Other teachers who played prominent roles in the program included Mrs. Joanne Pughsley, who acted as mistress of ceremonies and introduced Williams; Kay Furrer, who delivered a tribute to Mrs. Jo Mackey, for whom the new school was named; Mrs. Frances Horrocks, who expressed a "Thought for the Day," and Charles Murphy, who pronounced the benediction. Mrs. Smith presented a welcome to the assembled PTA members and guests while Principal Fitzgerald made the closing remarks. Staging was supervised by Ed Robinson, director of maintenance for the school.

Jo Mackey PTA committee chairmen for the coming year include Mrs. Minnie Bousley, membership; Clinton Wright, publicity; Willie Neal and C. E. Gardner, safety; Mrs. Georgie May and Willie Neal, magazine; Curtis Hall, education and legislation; Mrs. Ruth Brown, refreshments; Mrs. Rose Harris, room mothers; Mrs. Rosalee Jones, hospitality, and Willie Neal, school beautification. Robert Talefree will serve as parliamentarian.
