

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

RIVALRY--IVY LEAGUE STYLE . . .

No, it wasn't football--or baseball. In fact, it wasn't any kind of a sport, even though Jimmy Snyder, one of our more enterprising sports promoters was there bigger than life. But the traditional rivalry between Westside schools was very much in evidence as local principals and their faculties vied for applause at the third annual VOICE Pedagogical Soiree at Ruben's Supper Club. (No, Henry, a pedagogue is not a shoe salesman. It's a teacher with his or her degree showing. And we did not either spell "sorry" wrong. Any teacher at the party could have told you that's what "soiree" means--party, that is. Now where were we?)

Principals on hand for the frivolity along with most of their staffs included Miss Doris French (Westside), Mrs. Helen Anderson (Kit Carson), Mr. Earl Brunner (Highland), Mr. H. P. Fitzgerald (Jo Mackey), Dr. Joseph Caliguri (Madison) and Mr. John Walker (Matt Kelly). The applause meter showed the various groups came out dead--even all around in the popularity poll.

Mr. John West, our hard-working General Manager, introduced VOICE Publisher Dr. Charles I. West, Mrs. West and members of the VOICE staff to the big gathering, including many prominent citizens who turned out to help us honor the teachers. We spotted County Commissioner Ralph Denton, SUN Editor Bryn Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong, John Fry, John Bangles, the Sidney Bishops, the Ricky Carters, the Cal Bryants, Bob Reid (hubby of our own Sondra, just back from the Nevada State Bar get-together at Lake Tahoe), the Woodrow Wilsons (so glad to see Nora up and around again), the Andrew Arringtons (Natalie's picture is in this month's Ebony magazine as general chairman of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority's first local presentation of the Ebony Fashion Fair in December), and many, many more of our valued friends and well-wishers. ("You've got more people here than I drew for the International Air Races," remarked Jimmy Snyder, who dropped a bundle on that ill-fated venture.) Oh, yes! We certainly don't want to overlook our special friend, Mr. Leonard Mason, who was responsible for bringing in the delicious hors d'ouvres with the compliments of "The Cove," his soon-to-be-opened rendezvous in the Carver House.

NOTES from a LITTLE, BLACK BOOK . . .

Among those who attended the recent State Labor Council convention in Reno (where Mr. Al Bramlet was reelected president) were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Knighten, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Fennell . . . It was quite a trip for the Harry Rainers--down to Mexico, then back up the coast to Oregon, with Gwen still marvelling at their closeup look at the majestic redwoods. . . It was good to see so many members of the colored community at the big basketball game between the San Francisco Warriors and the Cincinnati Royals at the Convention Center, when Dr. West presented the first annual Nevada Southern Rebel Club "Nice Guy Award" to Royals star Jack Twyman for his many kindnesses to former teammate Maurice Stokes, the great Negro star who was struck down by paralysis almost eight years ago. . . In closing, a tip of the chapeau to Mrs. Allen Crozier for the scrumptious victuals she served the Alpha Rhos of Gamma Phi Delta at her lovely home recently. . . Bye, now.
