Although here in Viet Nam, I am one of your former constant readers who hasn't forgot about your progressive newspaper. I would very much like to subscribe to the VOICE for at least one year. I'd rather read something interesting about that growing community back there than remain curious. So, if you will oblige, I'd like to start now. Thanks very much.

Sincerely,

When I learned that Alpha Rho Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority was going to present the Ebony Fashion Fair, I knew Las Vegas was really joining the Space Age. This great fashion exposition will give our citizens a new and impressive view of Negro life.

Having attended many Ebony Fashion Fairs in Los Angeles while living there, I can truly say the clothes to be seen at this marvelous show are guaranteed to satisfy every mood and taste--from travel to the moon to shopping here on earth.

Designers represented at this show, such as Courreys, Rudi Gernrich and Teffeu-Bash, create fashions with an eye to the new generation. Other fashion setters like Chanel, Dear, Maggy Fouff and Hardy Ames (the latter personal designer to Queen Elizabeth) are sure to be seen here. And some of our less prominent artists are certain to match the magnificent creations of their better-known contemporaries.

I am sure The Best City of Them All has never seen such splendor and beauty as it will witness at the Ebony Fashion Fair. This is one affair that shouldn't be missed and I advise everyone to get their tickets early because I understand they are limited. A salute to Mrs. Till Toms and her sister sorors!

Your friend,
(Mrs.) Dorothy Johnson

Congratulations on keeping after the bus company to give the Westside better service. I notice that the new owners have promised to see that the situation is improved and I think they are really trying. But there is still room for plenty of more improvement.

I work on the Strip and it is always a question whether I am going to get to work on time or get back home within a couple of hours, at least that has been the case in the past.

I appreciate what the VOICE is trying to do for us in this and other matters of importance to our community. I hope you will keep up the good work. Thank you.

Yours truly,
E. M. Maywhort

Thank you for keeping us informed on all the interesting happenings at our churches and schools. Also for other things we can only learn about by reading the VOICE. The paper is doing a fine job and I think the people on the Westside should support it by patronizing the advertisers in the VOICE whenever they can. That is the least we can do in return for what the paper gives us.

All my neighbors like the VOICE too and we wish you the best of luck.

Very sincerely yours,
V.P.H.

This is not a reminder that your book is three weeks overdue. The "frost-on-the-pumpkin" weather closing in is a sharp reminder that fall is here and that it is nearly time for the 20th annual Nevada Library Association Convention. This year it is in the city known as the Queen of the Silver Camps--Tonopah--Oct. 22-24.

NLA felt it important to send you a special announcement of the convention since you are a great influence in your community. The association hopes you will be able to come to the conference and personally see and hear what is "doing" in the library world of Nevada.

Gov. Grant Sawyer will be the featured speaker at our banquet on Oct. 23. We also would very much like to have you join us.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Jane Howard
