

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

SURPRISE! SURPRISE! . . .

The weekend brought unexpected pleasure to our handsome, bachelor boss-man, John West, when he arrived home late from the office and was greeted by a host of friends assembled to shout "Happy Birthday to you!" And it was a real swinging party his mother, Mrs. Charles I. West, together with pretty Celeta Hunter and Henry Miller, arranged for the thoroughly surprised BM of the VOICE!

Among those on hand to wish "old" Bones many happy returns during a long night of fun and conviviality were Lt. and Mrs. Roger Von Phul, Capt. and Mrs. Alonzo Wright, Mr. and Mrs. David Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Ricci Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid (who took off from the party for San Diego), Mrs. Cal Bryant, Edna Ford, Jessie Lee Lattimore, Jeanie Hughes, Maxine Thompson, Betty Russell, Joyce James (squired by Bobby Johnson, who just passed his real estate exam), Aloha Weinberg, Leonard Mason, Clinton Wright, Boyd Henderson, John Booker, Sam Marber, Richard Williams, Leodis Prince, Al Wilburn and Cliff Burns, among others.

FUTURE DEBS "THUMBNAILLED" . . .

Three 17-year-old Rancho High seniors and one from Western High will be among the young ladies making their bows at the second annual Debutante Ball of Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve) in the Gold Room of the Las Vegas Convention Center on the evening of Dec. 5, a Saturday.

The Rancho students are Joy Ann Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard; Diane Glasco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Glasco, and Jacqueline (Jackie) Parker, daughter of Mrs. Susan Parker. Brenda Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mason, goes to Western High. (Photographs below.) Following are thumbnail sketches of all four:

Miss Williams' hobbies are sewing and dancing and her favorite subject in school is shorthand. She intends to continue her education at business college in San Diego, Calif., with a view toward becoming an IBM operator. She has two brothers.

Miss Glasco likes sports and singing. Her favorite course is music and she plans to teach school but has not decided where she will attend college. She has one brother.

Miss Parker is especially fond of cooking and singing and like Miss Glasco, her favorite subject is music. She also intends to teach following studies at Nevada Southern University. Her family includes four other girls and four boys.

Miss Mason's hobbies are modeling and singing. Her favorite study is psychology, which she hopes to put to good use in preparing to become a probation officer at UCLA. She has three sisters and brothers.

AROUND the TOWN . . .

Another swinging party (but no surprise, this one) was co-hosted by Leonard Mason, general manager of The Cove hotel (formerly the Carver House), and John West, general manager of the VOICE, at the soon-to-be-opened hostelry on the corner of 'D' and Jackson. (Watch the VOICE for the announcement.) Leonard reports that the party "quietly convened" (?!?) in The Cove's refurbished showroom lounge, appropriately named the Surf Room, at 10 p.m. and lasted into the wee hours of the morning. Hors d'ourves were furnished by The Mint and the cocktails came from Bob and Ann Bailey's Sugar Hill Lounge. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Overton Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Drake, Celeta Hunter, Cathy Jett, Carolyn Ladd, Mattie Flake, Hannah Brown, Margaret Cleveland, Vanida Thomas, Ruth Epperon, Charles Washington, Mailman Jones, Johnny Doe, Jasper Washington, Sam Marber, Don Williams, Joe Whittaker, Tom Wilson and many others. . . It was a baby shower for Mrs. Curtis (Carol) Adams at the beautiful Glen Heather Way home of Mrs. Lloyd (Patty Jo) Luman, who wore stunning hostess gown of green and gold. Participants included the Mmes. Helen Nelson, Carlotta Heron, Zona Murdock, Dorothy Stewart and Sandra Lichtenfeld. Eda Burns sent along her gift from Nellis AFB Hospital. Also tied up by her duties as a member of the Polly Bergen Show cast at the Hotel

Riviera, but sending a nice present, was Ruth Alcivar. . . Mrs. Curtis Lee Pettis took advantage of a trip to San Francisco for the Shriners convention to visit relatives in the Bay Area. . . Dr. Tommy Hickman and Dr. Charles Brockwood, in from Denver for the Physicians Conference, were shown around town by Al Wilburn. . . Would you like to buy a duck? No? Well, then, how about buying a brick to help Operation Independence build a new child care center? See Bobby Johnson (you can reach him at 642-7189) or any of the other volunteer brick salesmen. . . Rho Chapter of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority is holding a rummage sale at 1314 'D' St. a week from tomorrow (Nov. 5) starting at 8:30 a.m. The gals have vowed to stay on duty until every article is sold! Why not help them get home early? . . . That's all for now. See you next week.
