DOROTHY DOROTHY HONORED ...

The Desert Inn Hotel was the scene of a festive luncheon honoring United Nations American Association Chairman, Mrs. Dorothy Dorothy, Mrs. Dorothy, who is also vice president of the Nevada branch of the association, recently was named Southern Nevada's Outstanding Citizen by Nevada Savings and Loan, and was awarded the Distinguished Citizen's Award by Robert S. Benjamin, UNAA Chairman for the United States, in New York. At the local testimonial, Commissioner Grant Stuart made the presentation for Mayor Oran Gragson who was unable to attend.

Joseph W. McCabe was the main speaker at the luncheon. Mrs. Robert Bartlett was appointed chairman of the UN Grove program (the planting of trees from foreign lands in the Twin Lakes Park).

REQUESTED TIPS ON COTILLION BALL...

Because we have received many calls asking the proper evening wear for the Cotillion Ball, the Les Femmes Douze have asked me to announce THE BALL IS FORMAL, please! FIRST: a Cotillion debutante wears her prettiest evening dress which traditionally is white. Lady guests wear formal evening dress (long, please, if she is to be correctly attired) while the men wear white tie and tails, dinner jackets, black tie or tuxedo. For the lady in evening dress, gloves must be worn at all times. Long evening gloves may be rolled at the wrist for eating and cocktails.

According to the Les Femmes Douze Club members, the Ball's invitation will not say "strictly formal", meaning the men do not have to wear (the optional) tails, but must wear tuxedo and black tie.

For the ladies, an evening wrap (fur coat or stole) if you can. Your shoes should be dainty and colorful--gold, silver or dyed to match--or in contrast with your dress.

Please NOT Semi-formal, which means the lady may wear long or short cocktail dresses and the men dark business suits... We do hope we have given you some help on protocol of dress for the Cotillion, a very important occasion for those important young ladies in your life and ours! Call us at 642-6333 if we can help you further.

AUTUMN TEA ...

The newly organized Theta Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority hosted one of the loveliest affairs of the fall season, a beautifully appointed Autumn tea, at the Doolittle Recreation Center.

Members were dressed in stunning black, and wearing pink tea roses (florally depicting the groups' official colors of apple green and salmon pink). Pretty Basileus, Mrs. Isaac White, greeted guests at the door as other members acted as hostesses. Among the many guests we saw and exchanged pleasantries with were: Mrs. Virginia Hodges; Mrs. Anna D. Mack; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Freeman; Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Booker; Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Fitzgerald; Mr. Curtis Hall; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Guy; Lt. Roger

Curtis Hall; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Guy; Lt. and Mrs. Roger Von Phul; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rayford; Capt. Percy Penn; Mr. and Mrs. David Hoggard; Major Oscar Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. George Ward; Capt. and Mrs. Julius Calloway; Mrs. Rae Lee Jones; Mrs. Patricia Brown, the Von Phul's house guest from Los Angeles; Mrs. Juanita Wynn; Mrs. Deborah Moore; Mrs. Joyce M. Carnegie; Mrs. Dessie Adams; Mrs. Yvonne Smith; Mrs. Lubertha M. Johnson; Capt. Don Foshee (telling us that he and cute spouse, Betty, will soon leave for the Orient.)

Announcement

"The addition of Miss Alice Key to the VOICE staff is an announcement I am delighted to make" were the words of the VOICE general manager, John P. West, as he welcomed the former California newswoman and civic leader to Las Vegas.

Miss Key began her newspaper career with the Los Angeles Sentinel during the hectic days of World War II and later was associated with the Los Angeles Tribune in an executive capacity as well as writer. In 1947, she was honored with a testimonial dinner by the Los Angeles Police Department and commended for her work with them on the Department's recreational program for the economically deprived youth.

In 1960, Miss Key returned to her hometown of Riverside, California where she published and edited the Riverside VOICE. Always active in Democratic politics and voter registration, Miss Key was serving as co-chairman of California's 38th congressional District's State Central Committee.

"BOSS" A BIT OF ALL RIGHT ...

More than 25 guests enjoyed the swinging surprise birthday party Al Wilburn's employees threw for him at the Cove Hotel--it must be rough to be a handsome bachelor... And have you met the ABCD family? They are the Donald Kirklands: Daughter Allison is A; mother Bar-

Kirklands: Daughter Allison is 'A'; mother Barbara is 'B'; five-month-old baby Craig is 'C'; father Donald is 'D'; and who 'E' will be is left up to the clever and charming Kirklands.

AROUND OUR TOWN ...

Roy Brooks, brother of Mrs. Isaac White Jr., is young, handsome, single, and a "first" operation reservationist for TWA... Visiting the Kermit R. Booker home here were, Dr. and Mrs. O. F. Brown of Portland, Oregon, who were attending the Dental Convention.

Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Andrew (Mattie) Arrington in the loss of her father, Mr. Eric Hunt. Mrs. Arrington flew to New York to attend the funeral.

Remember, a telephone call to me at 642-6333 about your club affairs or any social event will give you complete coverage.
