

WHO'S WHO and doing what

By EDDYE K. KIM

MAGNIFICENT SPLENDOR . . .

Scintillating jewels, gorgeous gowns, elegant white tie and tails, flashing photographers' bulbs radiated a magnificent splendor to the second annual Les Femmes' Douze Ball in the Gold Room of the Las Vegas Convention Center, Saturday night, when a near dozen of the season's loveliest debutantes made their formal bow to society at the Les Femmes' Douze sponsored annual Cotillion Ball.

A lavishly decorated stage in Grecian motif provided an enchanting and romantic setting for the presentation of the 11 pretty young ladies.

Beautifully gowned in shimmering white; one by one, the girls literally floated on the stage to curtsy before their beaming fathers who escorted them to their places in line. Colorfully attired in a full panoply of Grecian gowns in colors of coral, green, pink, blue and gold, the 12 club members, who had been escorted by their hubbys to their position on stage, graciously awaited the entrance of the glowing Debs.

Mrs. Fred Moten, Club President, extended formal greetings to the girls after their individual presentation by Mr. John Moore.

MOTHERS TAKE PART . . .

It was a moving, emotion-packed moment of the program when the mother of each girl stepped forward to present her daughter with the club flower, a pink carnation tied with a coral ribbon, and kissed her.

THE CROWNING TOUCH . . .

Pretty Dorothy Snowden who was selected Cotillion Queen was crowned by Highland Elementary School Principal, Mr. Earl Brunner. Loretta Brags and Shirley Hawkins were attendants to the lovely Queen.

11 DREAMS WALTZING . . .

The scene was that of a fairy tale come true as the 11 handsome escorts danced the Cotillion measure with his favorite Deb. Proud fathers stepped forth to waltz to the tune of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" with Debutante Offsprings as escorts cut in, giving the cue for guests to join in swinging to the music of Sam Le Vets and his group. . . And so the revelry went far into the night.

In recognition of her contribution of teaching the girls, choreographer, Jeanne Roberts, was the recipient of a presentation by the sponsoring Club.

Many of the guests, far too numerous to mention names, went on to catch some of the Strip shows after the Ball, while the exuberant and indefatigable Debs and their escorts breakfasted at the El Morocco Cafe on the Strip.

SIX ALPHA RHO CHAPTER Sisters of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority split into two teams and left the Ball to appear on local television shows to publicize the upcoming Ebony Fashion Fair the Sorority is sponsoring Sunday at the Sands Hotel. Mmes. Charles West, Bob Bailey and your writer made the scene on Channel 13 while Mmes. Henry Moore, Andrew Arrington and Huedillard Fitzgerald were appearing on Channel 2. . . Viewers who saw the show all agreed that the "publicists" did a bang-up job. . . Incidentally, tickets will be on sale at 4 p.m. Sunday, in the Convention Hall of the Sands Hotel, and the bar will be open for cocktails at 6:30 p.m. . . The Fashion Fair begins at 7:30 p.m. . . Proceeds from the affair will go to the Home of the Good Shepherd Building Fund.

ANOTHER 'C' FOR THE ADAMS . . .

Carmello Loren, the baby boy adds another 'C' to the list of given names for the Adams family. Father is Curtis; Mother, Carol; Brother, Curt; and Sister, Cassandra. . . The Kermit Bookers (both Sr. and Jr.) had a fun trip together when they journeyed to Los Angeles to attend the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity's annual black and white formal. This year's event was held at the Palladium on Thanksgiving. The Kappa's "Black & White" is one of the stellar affairs of the year in Los Angeles society. The Bookers were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ticeson. Booker, Jr., is now a teacher in Elko, Nevada. To benefit the Zion Methodist Church, Mrs. Joanne Sykes presented a charming Musicale at the Church recently. (See program and photos).
