REV. AND MRS. J. E. DAVIS, Pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, 1531 Pittman St., Sparks, celebrated their second anniversary with members of the church and friends at a dinner given in their honor and which benefited the church the sum of six hundred dollars.

CONSTRUCTION OF HOLY TEMPLE CHURCH of God and Christ, Bishop E. Webb, pastor, has been completed. With the help of devoted members and friends, the Church's eminent sexton, Mr. W. Hines, has begun landscaping the yard. . . Speaking of Holy Temple's members--Rev. W. J. Wynn, the Junior Pastor and YPPW President, along with Mr. Jessie James Hall, Jr., Charles Carr, and Lowell Jones, Jr., has formed a group called the Gospel Messengers. The Gospel Messengers' first album is out, and has won more than considerable recognition throughout Nevada.

REV. LUTHER MACK SR., pastor of Spiritual Temple Church, extends an open invitation to everyone to attend Services there. Located in Sun Valley, directions for finding Spiritual Temple Church are as follows--Take Sun Valley Drive to Clear Acre Lane - follow to the end - turn right and proceed two blocks.

ELDER E. BROWN, Pastor of Pentecost Church of God and Christ, 541 N. Sierra, Reno, also invites us to attend any or all the Services there.

CAP Programs Formed

THE WAR ON POVERTY is off to a good start here in Northern Nevada. The Program Development Project, now being conducted by the Washoe County Community Action Association, was formed to implement Community Action Programs through the Office of Economic Opportunity as provided by Title II of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

The underlying purpose of community action programs is to help urban and rural communities to mobilize their resources to combat economic and social deficiencies.

Federal assistance is available up to a maximum of 90% to cover costs of developing, conducting and administering the community action program, with the remaining 10% contributed by the community being served. The 10% non-federal share need not be in cash, but can be "in kind", which can be use of local services or property, research assistance, office space, etc., where-in no reimbursement is required.

Remedial reading, literacy courses, employment counseling, homemaker services, job development and training, consumer education, vocational rehabilitation and health services are some of the activities that can be supported and coordinated within a community action program.

Members of the Washoe County Community Action Association, responsible for our county's community action programs are: Jerry Dondero, Chairman; Howard Gloyd, 1st Vice Chairman; Al Vreeland, 2nd Vice Chairman; Shirley Wedow, Secretary; Al Peevers, Treasurer; Dr. Sam Basta, John Dressler, Lou Gardella, Phil Hannifin, Stan Jones, Vince Keele, Mike Knowland, Robert Leland, Ed McAmoil, "Specs" McKenzie, Dr. William O'Brien, Marv Picollo, William Raggio, Robert Romine, Robert Seach, Doris Seidler, Tom Smeltzer, Alice Smith, Virginia Starkweather and Orv Wahrenbrock.

Dr. William Winkow, and other members not yet announced, have been named to the Board of Trustees. Executive Director of the Association is Mr. Atta Latta.

ORGANIZATIONS FORMED for Community Action Programs after a series of public meetings throughout the County, are in Sun Valley, Black Springs and Reno; Albert McKeel is President of the "Sun Valley Improvement Organization." Vice President is Lee Smith; Treasurer, Jim Gordon; and Secretary, Esterlin Nelson. Other board members are Carl Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wiggins, Priscilla McBride and Mel Brown.

In Black Springs, the operative organization is the "Black Springs Improvement Club" with Rev. S. E. Harris serving as Chairman; Rev. N. L. Logan, (See RENO NEWS, page 11)
