BE JOYOUS!

DAY AFTER CHRISTMAS. . .and a day of rest.

Wouldn't it be ideal if we could always arrange the calendar to be so obliging. It's not a minute too soon to think about New Years--the parade, the game, and of course, those New Years Eve parties.

One way to greet guests, who come to help welcome the New Year, without that stuffed feeling is to offer them these satisfying holiday dips.

Chips and crackers, carrot strips, tiny cherry tomatoes, cauliflower clusters, celery and cucumbers are delicious "dippers".

Creamy Horseradish Ham Dip

- 1/2 cup heavy cream whipped
- 1 packet horseradish dip or seasoning mix
- 1 can (2-1/4 oz) deviled Ham

Blend ingredients together thoroughly and refrigerate about one hour before serving.

Green Onion Dip

- 1 cup dairy sour cream
 - 2 packets green onion dip or seasoning mix
- Combine sour cream and green onion. Refrigerate one hour before serving. Serve with potato chips, corn chips, cooked cold shrimp, green pepper wedges or your favorite vegetable cut into bite-size pieces and serve on a platter.

Liverwurst Pate

- 1 pound liverwurst
- 1 packet green onion dip or seasoning mix
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 2 teaspoons water

*Cream cheese topping
Mash liverwurst with fork. Mix onion dip, sugar and water--blend thoroughly. Chill while making cream cheese topping. Spread cream cheese over liverwurst and serve with melba toast or crackers.

*Cream cheese topping: Melt 1 tablespoon garlic spread. Whip one package (8 oz) cream cheese with 1 tablespoon milk--dash of tabasco. Blend in melted garlic spread.

Savory Tuna Dip

- 1 can (6-1/2 oz) chunk style Tuna drained
- 1 teaspoon seasoned salt.
- 1 tablespoon grated onion
- 1 cup dairy sour cream

Place tuna in mixing bowl and flake with fork. Add seasoned salt and onion. Combine thoroughly and fold in sour cream. Sprinkle with chopped parsley before serving with potato chips or crackers.

MOST OF US usually have chitterlings during holidays. This is my favorite bar dinner:

Cut left-over chitterling in bite size (free of grease.) Make thick batter of flour, buttermilk and garlic salt. Dip chitterling into batter. Fry in deep fat--Serve hot and you truly will enjoy the New Years games or Rosebowl tournament.

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all my friends and associates.

tion of the Ebony Fashion Fair, and for their role as trail blazers in buying a $500 Life membership in the NAACP. . . To the Les Femmes Douze Club for the brilliance of the '65 Cotillion Ball, and to the many friends who helped to make my daughter, Jovanna's coming out party on the Strip the grand affair it turned out to be.

OTHER NICE HAPPENINGS . . .

Congratulations to Till Toms on his election as President of the Board of Directors of the Christian Science Association in San Francisco . . . To Attorney Charles Kellar on passing the Nevada State Bar enabling him to embark on his legal career here; and to the Kellar's son, Michael, on being a (first)--an Altar Boy at Christ Episcopal Church. . . To singer, Anthony Thomas for capturing and magnificently rendering the lead singing role in the Christmas Concert of "Elijah". . . To Attorney Earle White for being named to the Advisory Board of the League of Women Voters. . . To James Anderson for the appointment as Executive Secretary of the Nevada Equal Rights Commission.

WISHING FOR THE FUTURE . . .

That there will be no more mass arrests of juveniles, as there was in '65 when youngsters were jailed along with adults while demonstrating against voter registration requirements . . . That '66 will bring more Negroes into the field of sports--like Emmet Ashford whose appointment this year, as an umpire in the American Baseball League, marked the first time a Negro was employed as an umpire in the Major Leagues . . . It is a sincere wish that more civic-minded people will come to the aid of Attorney Robert Reid in his endeavors with his Boy's Club . . . That more people will become aware of, and contribute to the Nat King Cole Cancer Fund.

WHO WE WISH WHAT . . .

In the new year of 1966, for Dr. West a new yacht named Maizie, and smooth sailing for the future. . . For Bob Bailey, a private phone with another phone so he can keep three lines busy at once as he flies from one appointment to another, and finally landing in the beautiful Sugar Gardens. . . For the Les Femmes Douze Club President, Mrs. Fred Moten, a Cotillion where everyone shows up on time for rehearsal, and no one forgets the complicated dance figures . . . For the disgruntled 400, more invitations, and a last minute bid to the Cotillion Ball. . . For Mrs. Charles West, a be-sequined, be-furred, and be-feathered gown to outdo any of the previous exotic creations she has worn to Presidential Inaugural Balls.

OUR CRYSTAL BALL . . .

We see that all roads will lead to Las Vegas in 1966 when three Greek Letters will host their far west Regionals--The Alpha Psi Alphas in April, the Kappa Alpha Psi Regional in August with Gamma Phi Delta swinging in October. Oh Yes, the Alpha Kappa Alpha's Theta Theta Omega Chapter came on in '65.

A NOTE FOR THE FUTURE . . .

Will all you dear readers who have social notes for Who's Who make a special effort to get them to me before my Monday noon deadline, and help me make my editor, Miss Alice Key happy during 1966--Please.

AND TO ONE AND ALL--Sincerest best wishes for all that's good in the coming year.

KAPPA XMAS PARTY

THE K. R. Booker, Sr. residence at 1531 West Bonanza Rd. was the scene of a joyous Christmas Party Thursday evening, December 23.

The event was uniquely prepared and planned by the Kappa Silhouettes. Christmas decorations, carols, games and delightful food in the Christmas motif was cleverly carried out in the glow and beauty of an adorned Christmas tree that bore much fruit, topped by the "great Star" with the glowing Kappa Diamond in the background.

Gifts were exchanged in the "Pick your own" technique. Dart throwing was the featured game, Kappas against the Silhouettes. First prize was won by Hershel Williams, Mrs. Gwendolyn Woods and Major George Sherman tied for second.

The following were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Meldon Woods; Captain and Mrs. William Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Williams; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rayford; J. David Hoggard, Jr.; William J. Haynes; Major and Mrs. George Sherman; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Sherman of Fresno, California and Mr. and Mrs. Kermit R. Booker, Sr.
