legal attacks on segregation. She assisted the social science research on the harmful psychological and educational effects of racial segregation. She worked with the committee of Social Science Consultants, a special advisory committee on desegregation to the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

In 1952, together with other NAACP representatives, she was arrested in Cairo, Illinois during a school desegregation drive.

For three summers, she conducted the civil rights program of the Encampment for Citizenship, a training institute for young adults.

Miss Shagaloff is a contributor to The Crisis, the official organ of the NAACP, The Journal of Negro Education, The Journal of Social Issues, The Journal of Educational Sociology, and other publications.

She is a graduate of New York University and an elected member of Alpha Kappa Delta, national honorary sociological society.

Holes in linoleum can be filled with a mixture of finely-chopped cork and glue. Rub down with emery paper when perfectly dry, cover with paint or Varnish.
When painting a room, cut a large onion in two, and leave it stand all night and it will destroy the odor of the paint.
If you are painting woodwork around a window, first cover the glass with Bon-Ami. Any paint will wash off with Bon-Ami.
