MULTI FOUNDER'S DAY NOTED BY GREEK LETTER GROUPS

The month of February was an extremely active social one for many Greek Letter groups celebrating the occasions of their various Founder's Day.

Theta Theta Omega, Las Vegas Graduate Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, celebrated Founder's Day with a closed dinner at Toto's Restaurant.

Dr. Leadie Clark, prominent Los Angeles State College Instructor and Far West Regional Director for the Sorority, as Guest Speaker at Theta Theta Omega's Dinner, delivered a most inspiring and informative speech. Also attending the Las Vegas marking of the occasion from Los Angeles were Mrs. Vivian Strange, a deputy police woman and Mrs. Jessie Mae (Brown) Beaver, Los Angeles Sentinel Society Editor -- both are members of the Sorority.

Mrs. Dottie Von Phul served as chairman of the annual event. Enjoying the affiliation with her Sorors is the very vivacious Eva Houston who transferred from the St. Louis, Mo., Chapter.

CITATION FOR LOCAL KAPPAS . . .

The local chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity observed their Founder's Day at a closed banquet at the El Cortez Hotel at which time they were presented with a citation from the Grand Chapter in Boston. (See Pictures).

DOUBLE EVENT FOR GAMMA PHI DELTAS . .

Cold weather and the flu epidemic failed to hamper the spirits of Gamma Phi Delta members (Alpha Rho Chapter) who combined their Founder's Day celebration with a presentation of their first "Artists of Tomorrow" Award at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles I. West.

Chairman Edythe Abington with Co-Chairman Ruby Garland and committee members of the recently initiated "Artists of Tomorrow" project of the Sorority received much deserved congratulations for their work in screening young artists here in Las Vegas and also for the brilliant presentation of the young people appearing before the Sorority members and their guests on Sunday.

Jovanna Williams (this scribes' daughter) opened Sunday's program with the Lords Prayer. Of course, the breathlessly awaited for announcement was the name of the recipient of Gamma Phi Delta's 1st annual Award winner. It was announced that after careful review and evaluation of outstanding young artists, Willie Stete, a singer, formerly from San Diego State College had been selected as the Sorority's 1st "Artists of Tomorrow" Trophy Winner.

Accompanied by Mrs. William E. Wynn at the piano, Mr. Stete sang two selections verifying the acumen of the committee's choice, and was presented the Winner's Trophy by Mrs. Ruby Garland, the "Artists of Tomorrow" project chairman who pointed out that it is a cardinal aim of the Sorority to hold annual events to acknowledge and encourage the accomplishments of youngsters in cultural endeavor.

Additional outstanding performers on the program (and incidentally, the youngest) were three young men from Henderson--a Musical group, enthusiastically received by those present--consisting of Lester B. Rose on drums, Mark Denton on the portable organ (Mark is the son of Ralph Denton) and Clifford Garland, guitarist. Cliff is the son of Mrs. Ruby Garland.

Alpha Rho Chapter members of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority did have invited guests at their Sunday affair, and among representatives of various Greek Letter organizations, we noted the presence of Floyd Plymouth, President of the local Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity to whom we had given a list of the Bay Area's Alphas to look

WARE - SCOTT NUPTIALS . . .

Zelma Marie Ware and David Lee Scott were united in Holy Matrimony in a formal ceremony at the Upper Room Church of God in Christ with Bishop C. C. Cox officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Ware, escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father, was radiant in a white peau-de-soir empire gown designed with a flowing Chantilly lace back panel that fell from the neckline and long, tight fitting sleeves. Her illusion veil was held in place with a lace and seed pearl head piece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations interlaced with lilies of the valley.

The bridal attendants were gowned in pink peau-de-soir sheaths with bertha collars of silk organza; all styled by Lillie Johnson. Headpieces of matching bows and bouquets of pink carnations on a heart completed the bridesmaids ensembles. (See picture for names of wedding attendants).

Immediately following the ceremony a formal reception was held at the Church for the newlyweds. Heading the receiving line were the mothers of the bride and groom. Mrs. Ware, mother of the bride was striking in a gold brocade sheath with matching accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. David L. Scott, Sr. chose a lovely blue crepe sheath with pink roses. Both ladies were beautifully ornamented with butterfly orchids.

Assisting as hostesses at the reception were Mesdames John Davis, Charles Otley, Jimmie Miller, George Ward, Bobby Huchon, and Elmer Grayson. Junior hostesses were the Misses Lavern Coleman, Francine Coleman, and Sarah Jackson.

David Lee Scott, the groom, is a student at Weber State College in Ogden Utah. The bride is presently a receptionist for First Western Savings and Loan Company at their Baldwin Heights homes. She will join her spouse later in scholastic studies at the Ogden Utah College.
