Negroes Moving On Up - In Spots

NEW YORK, N.Y.--Mr. William G. Pegg of Brooklyn, N.Y. has been named Acting Veterans Employment Representative for the State of New York.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz in announcing the recent appointment of Mr. Pegg as ASSISTANT Veterans Employment Representative, noted that this was the first such appointment of a Negro in the area. Subsequently, Mr. Pegg has been named ACTING Representative.

Mr. Pegg's duties encompass every possible effort to assist the State Employment Service in securing employment for veterans. He conducts training seminars and maintains extensive contacts with prospective employers.

A native of Omaha, Neb., he is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and while in the armed service graduated from Officer's Candidate School in New Orleans, La. He is a licensed Insurance and Real Estate Broker and has served recently as Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist for the Veteran's Administration.

He lives in Brooklyn, N.Y. with his wife and five children.
