

Doings at the Elks

By Willie A. Neal, Exalted Ruler

IN THE SPRING, A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY TURNS TO . . . Well anyway, we don't know who to give credit to, the spring weather we are having or what, but we are beginning to get the support of our community. Our affairs are getting bigger and better each time, and all of the Elks and Does are very happy with the community cooperation evidenced by increasing attendance to our affairs.

Our teen-age dances have been very successful. Under the supervision of Brother Monroe Phillips and Linda Ward, these dances are chaperoned by our Daughter Elks. No alcohol is served, just a place where our teen-agers can get together, dance and enjoy themselves.

The Elk's hall is available to all organizations and Clubs, to use as a meeting place. The fee is nominal and interested parties may contact Joe L. Robertson 384-4961 for meeting dates.

Scshed your winter duds, don your finest spring clothes and let's all meet at the Elk's Lodge. Don't forget our Sunday afternoon Jam Sessions beginning at 2 p.m.

LET'S MAKE LAS VEGAS AN ELK TOWN.

"CURTAIN TIMERS" SCORE

WHILE THOROUGHLY ENJOYING the Las Vegas Curtain Timers' first-rate presentation of their initial production "Come Blow Your Horn", Saturday night at the Mint Hotel Convention Center, the thought occurred to me that the Las Vegas Recreation Department is indeed blessed to have a man of such myriad talents, energy and enterprise as is Nick Sylvester, City Recreation Supervisor.

It was a few weeks ago that Sylvester was recruiting talent to organize the city recreation drama group, and it is near incredible (and certainly to his everlasting credit) that, under his skillful direction, this amateur Little Theatre group, still in its infancy, played the smash Broadway hit of a few years ago with professional ease, technique, and delineation of characterization.

Neil Simon's hilarious 3-act comedy is a dream play for an actor, and the local drama group played it to the hilt with verve and enthusiasm. It was a tour de force for Pat O'Neill in the role of Buddy, the younger Baker son, and Bob Mitchell portraying the role of Harry Baker with ingenious abandon.

The Curtain Timers next production "The Cradle Snatchers", a 3-act comedy farce, will be presented at the Mint Hotel on May 20 - 21 and May 27 - 28. Readings for this second production of the group will be held April 4 at the Valley High School little theatre.

Mark your calendar for this one. The Las Vegas Curtain Timers are a fine Little Theatre Group, and deserve support from all Las Vegans who enjoy good Theatre.--ak

ANOTHER SCHOLARSHIP

The Clark County Attorney's Wives this week granted a $300 scholarship for a law student at Nevada Southern University.

Mrs. Robert Gifford, president of CCAW, states that the scholarship will be awarded for the first time at Spring Commencement to a graduating NSU senior planning to enter law school.

Students interested in applying for the scholarship should contact Dr. Ben Owen, NSU director of Student Personnel Services.

The scholarship fund was raised by the Attorney's Wives Annual Home Tour, according to Mrs. Albert Mateucci, tour coordinator.

The Annual Home Tour was established in Las Vegas five years ago. Each year five outstanding homes are selected for their unusual adaptability or attractiveness where open house is held at a nominal fee for several days in November.
