

NEW SHOW POLICY FOR SURF ROOM STAR

VELVET RECORDING star, Delores Ealy & her Playboys, opened Wednesday night at the Surf Room in the Cove Hotel for a limited engagement.

Delores acclaimed by critics as a "real walkin-shouter" opened at the popular Las Vegas Nitery fresh on the heels of a successful engagement at the "Maverick" in Los Angeles during which time her Velvet Recording, "I Wish You Were Mine" climbed to the number five spot in L.A. sales.

Since it is expected that Miss Ealy will draw standing room only crowds to the Surf Room, the management has installed a new five shows a night policy with six shows on weekends.

Other new features at the Cove include Ladies Daze on Mondays with special surprises and cash prizes beginning at 12 noon until 10 p.m. followed by a VIP Party-Show on Tuesday nights, a new audience Platter Party where patrons can pantomime the latest records for prizes and EVERY DAY at 2:30-3:30-4:30 & 8:30 p.m. there's Free Bingo with cash prizes up to $500.

The Cove Hotel & Casino, home of the beautiful Surf Room, is located at the corner of 'D' & Jackson Streets in the heart of Las Vegas, West.

WASHINGTON, D.C.--The President has announced the formation of a Council to the White House Conference, "To Fulfill These Rights." The Council, composed of a cross section of the nation's leadership, will devote evenings and weekends to preparation for the Conference first proposed by the President in his speech at Howard University in June, 1965. The Conference will be held in Washington, June 1 and 2.

A. Philip Randolph is Honorary Chairman of the Conference. The newly formed Council will be chaired by Ben W. Heineman, Chairman of the Board of Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Co. Edward C. Sylvester, Jr., Director of the Labor Department's Office of Federal Contract Compliance; and Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy, Director of the Washington Bureau of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, are Vice Chairmen of the Council and will assist Mr. Heineman.

The President charged the Council, under the Chairmanship of Ben W. Heineman, with the responsibility of sifting the concepts, proposals, and programs outlined in the 1965 Planning Session and developing through their experience and knowledge a substantive agenda. It will be the task of the Council to consult with experts across the country; then develop programs for change to be presented to the Conference participants for their consideration and action. The Council met March 5 for its first meeting.

In his speech at Howard University, the President announced he would call the Conference "to help the American Negro fulfill the rights which, after the long time of injustice, he is finally about to secure."

The Planning Session, held November 17 and 18, brought together approximately 250 scholars, leaders, and experts in civil rights problems from across the nation to consider some of the outstanding problems involved in bringing minority groups in this country from opportunity to achievement.

Membership of the newly-formed Council includes:
Professor Allison Davis, University of Chi-

Other Council members are:
Whitney Young, Jr., Executive Director National Urban League; Ben W. Heineman, Chairman of the Board Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company; Morris Abram, Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison; Honorable Edward T. Breathitt, Governor of Kentucky; Jerome Bruner, Director, Center for Cognitive Studies, Howard University; William T. Coleman, Jr., Kilworth, Paxson, Kalish, Kohn & Dilks; Stephen Currier, Taconic Foundation, Inc.; John S. Gleason, Jr., Vice President First National Bank of Chicago; Courtlandt S. Gross, Chairman Lockheed Aircraft Corporation.

Others on the Council are:
Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, President Notre Dame University; Vernon E. Jordan, Project Director Voter Education Project, Atlanta, Georgia; James A. Linen III, President Time, Inc.; Honorable Theodore McKeldin, Mayor of Baltimore; James G. Maddox, Professor of Agriculture University of North Carolina; Joseph Malony, Vice President United Steelworkers of America; Burke Marshall, General Counsel IBM; J. Irwin Miller, Chairman Cummins Engine Company; William Miller, Textron, Inc.; Professor Robert Spike, University of Chicago; George Meany, President AFL-CIO.
