"The Crappie Catcher" INFORMATION

WASTE OF FISH OR GAME

Fish and game are resources belonging to the people of the State and are made available to individuals under conditions designed to give the maximum utilization to the greatest number of people. A person who wastes fish and game or who allows it to spoil because of his carelessness or ineptitude can be prosecuted under the provisions of our law.

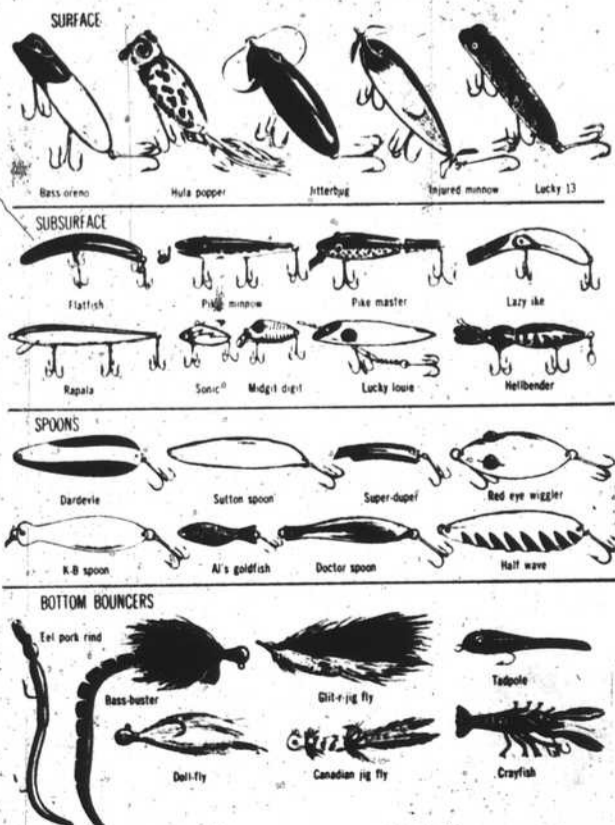

LIVE BAIT REGULATIONS

Unless otherwise specified, live bait refers only to live fish. Except where specifically prohibited, it is lawful to take and use live fish for bait from the waters in which you are fishing. However, it is unlawful to seine or to transport live bait unless you have first obtained a seining and transportation permit from the Nevada Fish and Game Commission, or unless such bait is procured from a licensed bait dealer and such transportation is accompanied by a receipt.

Seining and transportation permits may be procured from Fish and Game Commission offices or its personnel throughout the State at no fee. The use of game fish for bait is prohibited except where otherwise specified.

BASEBALL

DON DRYSDALE, DODGER Ace who's had his troubles getting started this season, finally won one in style--defeating the CINCINNATI REDS 14-2. . . Give DON a little time, he'll win his required number of games. . . But it's JUAN MARICHAL of the winning SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS club who has baseball fans awed so far this season. At this writing, MARICHAL has won five, lost none. . . If he keeps his winning ways, with the great support of WILLIE MAYS and COMPANY, the GIANTS are a mortal lock to win it all. . . The two ROBINSONS, FRANK and BROOKS continue to blast the hide off the baseball as the BALTIMORE ORIOLES set their sights on the AL pennant--Sunday's double-header victory of the ORIOLES, had the CLEVELAND INDIANS yelling OUCH instead of UGH!

Speaking of the American League, the VOICE editor, Alice Key, a rabid DODGER and National League fan, was one of the 42,815 fans who saw the YANKEES knock off the CALIFORNIA ANGELS Saturday night--Miss Key reports that the new Anaheim Stadium is "more handsome than Dodger Stadium on the outside, but that the interior is less handsome"--However, according to the editor who knows about these things, the bars are far handier at the Anaheim ball park.

Wallace 1st Negro SEC Cager

NASHVILLE, Tenn.--Vanderbilt broke the Southeastern Conference color line when they recruited Perry Wallace this week. Outstanding rebounder Wallace who was sought by 80 colleges indicated that he had no misgivings about being the first of his race to play in the SEC.

Wallace said that several northern colleges used the racial angle in an attempt to discourage his signing with a southern school.

"In the first analysis, I thought a long time about becoming the first Negro boy in the SEC," said the 6-5, 217 pound Wallace.

"But coach Roy Skinner is a very sincere person and the fellows of the Vanderbilt team are the nicest I met during all my trips," he said. "I'm willing to work hard and give it a try with these kind of people."

Wallace has been visiting a number of college campuses for the past several weeks. Asked if any of the schools tried to scare him about becoming the first Negro to play in the SEC, Wallace grinned and replied:

"Well, it's part of the recruiting for these schools to find out if you have a preference and then use some angle to discourage you from going to that particular school.

"And, the main thing they would hit in my case was the fact that there were no other Negroes playing in the SEC."

Madison Cubs Cop Honors

AT THE SCOUT FAIR held at the Convention Center last Saturday, Madison Cubs walked off with two first place awards in two separate divisions. In Booth displays and demonstrations, the unit featured Potato Printing of various kinds and the many designs that can be used. Den Mothers, Mrs. Hazel Geran, Mrs. Climora Mayfield, Mrs. Sweetie King and assistant, Mrs. Mayline Harris supervised the project. Their booth won much acclaim for creativity and designing. Pack Committee assisting were Macil Cooper, Acting Cubmaster; Johnus Geran, and Joseph Mayfield.

The Madison Cub Drill team, known as the "Blue Jackets" under direction of A.W. Scott won first prize in competition in their division in Stage Show Performance. They received great applause from the audience for their act.

Mrs. Ethel Booker, Pack Advisor, says the Madison Unit did themselves "great" in the eyes of the entire Boulder Dam Council. Many Pack Leaders and Den Mothers in various parts of the Council wanted to know more about potato craft as exhibited by the boys.

notice of his championship talent by defeating well-schooled (and long-time around) FRANKIE BELMA of Los Angeles. JOHNNY was in command all the way--not only a good fighter, but a great guy. A big salute to trainer MICKY PARKS and manager DON COHEN who are responsible for the promising careers of Middleweight ARMAND LAURANCE, Heavyweight SONNY KING as well as champion-to-be JOHNNY BROOKS. . . JOE CLARK and CANDY BARNES who will both make their debut in scheduled 10-rounders here in Las Vegas next Monday against opponents yet to be named, have something else in common--Both got their schooling at the All American Boys Club. . . That prominent amateur Middleweight, HENRY BANKS, has turned Pro on the advice and under the direction of the great trainer, RED WILLIAMS who can be seen daily at RED WILLIAMS Drive-In Cleaners, corner of Highland and Miller Rd. . . CASSIUS CLAY and his entourage head for London to defend his title the 4th time against HENRY COOPER, a good prospect--Best of luck, Champ.

KAUAI KING, a son of the great NATIVE DANCER, made every post a winning one in the Kentucky Derby Saturday in the Run for the Roses, and has returned to his stable in Maryland to get ready for the Preakness, May 22. . . No horse has captured the "big three" since CITATION performed the feat way back in 1948.

MEMORIAL DAY RACE TELECAST AT FLAMINGO

LAS VEGAS, NEV.--The nation's most comfortable seating arrangements for the Memorial Day (Mon, May 30) closed circuit telecast of the Indianapolis 500-mile racing classic will be here in Las Vegas.

Because the race will not be shown on home TV, interest in MCA-TV's telecast has reached a record high around the country. In nearly 200 major cities, sports fans will crowd armories, halls, theaters and auditoriums to watch what has been termed "the most exciting, demanding single event in the world of sports."

But in this city, racing fans will relax in the luxurious setting of the Flamingo Hotel's Mead Room. Comfortable upholstered chairs--plus carpeting and draperies--will provide a plush environment for the large screen showing of the 500-mile spectacular.

Promoter Mel Larson introduced an innovation last year which caught the fancy of ticket buyers. An area in the forward portion of the Mead Room has been set aside for purchasers of $12 tickets.

KNOWN AS Celebrity Circle, it will include tables as well as comfortable chairs. Moreover, cocktails will be available in this area.

Reserved seat guests in the $8 and $10 areas may step into the adjoining lounge for food and drink during any point of the telecast.

Seats for all sections are available at Toddkill Lincoln-Mercury, 2000 Las Vegas Blvd., South. Mail orders are being accepted c/o Indy 500 TV, Flamingo Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.
