30 agencies. Youth Opportunity Center has provided 247 counseling sessions, given 104 tests to NYC enrollees since November project start. 42 enrollees are attending adult education, MDTA, or beauty college classes. Coordination of program with the "work experience" program under Title V, administered by the Welfare Department is resulting in expanded program. Granted November 5, 1965; terminates April 30, 1966. 345 enrollees employed; 10 staff. FEDERAL FUNDS: $186,630

5. CONDUCT AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY BOARD

Six month's grant to fund operation of Economic Opportunity Board. Provides for program development, project supervision, financial administration. Covers director, two program assistants, 2 secretaries, and part-time bookkeeper. Additional responsibility required of the Economic Opportunity Board by OEO is the development of six neighborhood councils in West Las Vegas. Coordinates separate programs with "Work Experience", Basic Education programs under other Titles of the Economic Opportunity Act. Relates to other agencies as needed or indicated in developing antipoverty programs, e.g. Migrant Health and West Las Vegas Community Health program with Public Health Service; educational programs under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act with Clark County School District. Terminates February 15, 1966. 5-1/2 persons employed.

FEDERAL FUNDS: $27,478

FIRST NINE MONTHS of Economic Opportunity Board operation has resulted in new Federal money in Clark County of $715,000. Persons employed 1800. Number of persons employed other than from poverty level has been less than 1%. Number of persons served directly:

Children -- 600 minimum estimate

Parents -- 500 minimum estimate

VISTA services -- 250 minimum estimate

Next week, the report will be continued itemizing the four projects presently being reviewed by the Office of Economic Opportunity; three projects awaiting board approval, and an additional three projects currently under study.

Then, hopefully, the story of Operation Independence.
